CAP AND GOWN MEASURE KILLED

But Graduation Must Be Informal

Caps and gowns will not be required of graduating seniors in the Jefferson Elementary School district.

The school board, at their regular meeting last Thursday, rescinded previous action making the caps and gowns mandatory. Their decision was based on varying degrees of public opinion against the traditional graduation costume. Since the board passed the resolution to make the caps and gowns a part of graduation, letters both pro and con have poured into the office of THE RECORD and the Elementary School District.

Proviso Noted

However, in rescinding their previous action the board noted that graduation ceremonies are to be informal and are to be an expression of "termination" of grade school, rather than the traditional graduation. This spirit, the board indicated, will prevent parents from "going all out" for expensive graduation clothes. The cap and gown resolution originally was passed so as to cut down the clothing problem for parents.

Previous to this discussion, Architect Mario Ciampi reported on the progress of the current $3,000,000 school building program. His report follows:

Westlake School

1. The foundation of the Westlake school and below floor areas are completed, and structural steel is on hand to begin erection immediately. Ciampi stated that it appears the school is about two weeks behind schedule, but a representative of the contractor informed him that this time loss will be made up.

2. Site utilization plans for the 18 classroom addition to the new Colma school were presented and approved.

3. Preliminary plans for Garden Village addition, including seven classrooms, kindergarten, multiple use room and library were presented and approved.

Site Costs

4. The plans for the Woodrow Wilson school all purpose room were presented and approved.

At this point Mr. Harrison of the Serra Realty Company reported on the progress he had been able to make in site acquisition for the Woodrow Wilson multiple use room. He noted that each of the three owners on Santa Barbara Avenue was requesting $1,000, or a total of $3,000 for the rear 65 feet.

Mr. Harrison reported that the owners of two blocks to be used for the site of the upper half of the Colma school were requesting $259,977 for their property.

The board took Mr. Harrison's report under advisement.

Sewage Disposal $450,000 Plant Now Under Study

Moving toward the construction of a $450,000 sewage treatment plant for the Daly City area, the newly formed North San Mateo Sanitation District board met last Saturday night.

A. J. Gaggero, Daly City councilman, was elected chairman of the three man board. Fred Bertetta, also a councilman, was chosen as secretary. Tom Hickey, San Mateo County Supervisor, is the third member of the board.

A general discussion of the needed sewage treatment plant took up most of the Saturday meeting. The necessity of such a method of sewage disposal has been made mandatory by the state. It is no longer legal to dump sewage into the ocean, as Daly City is doing at the present time.

The board is to meet again this evening (April 5) in City Hall, at which time an engineer will be appointed to lay the groundwork for the plant. Also, an architect will be named for the job.

It is expected that the voters will be requested to pass a bond issue for the necessary plant sometime during the latter part of this year.

State Issues Three Real Estate Licenses

APRIL 5. (CNS)—State Real Estate Commissioner D. D. Watson today issued real estate salesman licenses to the following in Daly City:

George A. Cordellos, 6029 Mission Street; Raymond J. Flanagan, 2125 Junipero Serra Boulevard; Robert Galli, 6029 Mission Street.

Alfreda Pistohl Represents Jeff At Girls' State

Alfreda Pistohl, of Brisbane, has been selected to represent Jefferson Union High School at Girls' State, to be held in Sacramento, June 20 to 28.

Girls' State is sponsored by the Womens Auxiliary of the American Legion. The Brisbane, Broadmoor and Daly City posts are sponsoring Miss Pistohl as only one girl from each high school may be sent.

Lee Gorsuch, of Sharp Park, Richard Tranham, of Brisbane, and Richard Moquin, of Daly City are being sent to Boys' State by the Legion posts.

The representatives were chosen by their classmates at a recent meeting.

Girls' State and Boys State are conducted for the purpose of interesting future leaders in good government. State, county and city governments are organized and a wide program of activities is carried on.

These meetings are rated high by our educators and laymen who are familiar with them. All are enthusiastic in the praise of the American Legion's interest in youth, as manifested in these conventions.

BROADMOOR TO GET MORE POLICE

Voters Elect Patey Bertucci To Posts

Patrick Patey today begins his second term as Commissioner of the Broadmoor Police district, while Botchie A. Bertucci takes over the job of Fire Commissioner.

In a close election Monday, Patey defeated Frank Casso Jr. by only 9 votes to win 150 votes to Casso's 141. The third candidate, Roy Logan Jr., received 92 votes.

Voters also agreed to enlarge the Broadmoor police district tax. This will bring the police tax to the $1 limit.

Police Chief Paul Schmidt said today the money will be used to pay salaries of two additional men. This will bring the full time police force up to four men, in addition to 25 auxiliary men and 15 auxiliary women officers.

SPRING FESTIVAL MEET IS SLATED FOR NEXT TUESDAY

What promises to be the biggest annual event in Daly City... the Spring Festival... is scheduled here for May 6.

Invitations have already gone out to everyone from the top military "brass" to dog trainers to take part in the full day event which will be highlighted by a parade and a program at Jefferson High School.

Anyone interested in assisting, or taking part in the Spring Festival, is invited to a special meeting April 10. The meeting will get underway at 7:30 p.m. in city hall. Local business men are especially urged to attend.

Watch THE RECORD from week to week for further news of the Spring Festival.

School Week Observed Here

The 32nd Annual Observance of Public Schools Week will be held this year beginning on April 23 and extending through Friday, April 27.

Schools of the Jefferson Elementary District will participate in a series of programs, open houses, demonstrations and exhibits designed to acquaint the public with the work being carried on currently in their schools. Full details of the program will appear in later issues of this paper.

Present plans include an exhibit of Art, Craft, Home Economics and Woodshop Projects to be placed on display in local business houses. Particular emphasis will be placed upon the actual classroom work.

In addition the new school buildings completed in the District and the modernization of the Jefferson School which was accomplished last summer will be featured.

Parents and friends are cordially invited to become acquainted with the work of the schools during this observance.

Carpenter Charged As Killer

AT THE SUNDAY DEDICATION ceremony of the new Colma School, Mrs. Stella Jensen, local civic leader and president of the San Mateo County School Trustees Association congratulated the community on the opening of the new school. Students were using the rooms later this week. This ends double shift education for most of Daly City... at least until next fall.

Bookie Raid

Broadmoor Man Allegedly Operated From Home To Make Up Business Loss

Arraigned in justice court today on a bookmaking charge will be Gerry O'Hare, 35, 936 Foothill Drive, who allegedly was carrying on bookie operations from his Broadmoor home.

The 35-year-old ex-bartender was arrested by Broadmoor Police Chief Paul Schmidt and Deputy Sheriff Paul Jensen Tuesday.

Chief Schmidt said the raid was brought on by reports over the past two weeks of an "undue number" of people visiting the O'Hare residence.

When the two officers were admitted to the home, O'Hare met them at the door with a batch of checks in his hands, Chief Schmidt said.

According to Chief Schmidt, O'Hare admitted he had been bookmaking over the past three months, and had taken in about $400 a day to recoup for losses when his San Francisco bar failed.

On the front room table of the Broadmoor home was found $113 in cash, and bookmaking material, Chief Schmidt asserted.

O'Hare's wife, Dorothy, was not on the premises at the time. She was cleared of complicity in the crime.

The accused was released on $2000 bail, and will appear before Judge Thomas Bocci today.

When questioned about the future of bookmaking in Broadmoor, Chief Schmidt said he had his eye on "possibly six other similar operations."

"We will close any bookmakers who attempt to operate in Broadmoor," Chief Schmidt said.

Salary Increase

Teachers Ask $3,500 Minimum

A minimum salary of $3,500 a year for San Mateo County School teachers, including Daly City teachers, is in the offering today.

The salary increase was recommended by the San Mateo County Teachers' Association. Support for the teachers was given also by James R. Torney, county school superintendent.

The recommended increase is the outcome of a survey by the Association as to the needs of teachers.

Presently the state minimum salary for teachers is $2,400. Members of the Jefferson Elementary School District receive a minimum of $2,800.

Youth Confesses Colma Burglaries

Thomas J. Fischer, 19, arrested in Los Angeles last Thursday on suspicion of burglary, has confessed to committing five home burglaries in San Mateo County, the sheriff's office was notified recently.

A complaint was filed against Fischer by Fred M. Wyckoff, assistant district attorney, charging him with burglarizing two homes in Broadmoor Village. The San Bruno and Redwood City police departments were locating the homes Fischer robbed there.

Fischer told the Los Angeles police that he threw a white bank bag containing jewelry and watches from an auto while driving near the railroad tunnel north of South San Francisco.

Trustees from the county jail immediately began a search for the loot along the Bayshore Highway north of South San Francisco.

Fischer is charged with breaking into the home of William Roberts, 602 Larchmont Drive, Broadmoor Village, on March 11, and taking $190 worth of wrist watches, cuff links, costume jewelry and $10 from two piggy banks.

He also is charged with looting the home of Harry Edgett, 2205 Garden Lane, Colma, and stealing a $100 wrist watch and 67 cents.

Signal Contract Awarded By State

With a low bid of $57,644 the R. Flatland Co. of San Francisco was awarded the job of installing traffic signals on "top of the hill" and near Market.

This announcement was made today by the state division of highways. Bids on the job were opened Wednesday.

It is expected that work will begin on the signals and channelization within the next 30 days.

Signals will go in on Mission at San Jose Avenue and Market Street.

Teacher's Suitor Alleged Murderer

Stieve To Be Arraigned After Suicide Recovery

Charged today with the murder of piano teacher Daisy Gowland, 52, 928 Brunswick, is one of her four suitors, Herman O. Stieve.

The formal murder complaint was signed Wednesday by Police Chief W. W. Sunderland upon the advice of the San Mateo County District Attorney's office. The 52-year-old shipyard carpenter will be arraigned as soon as he is able to leave a hospital bed where he was confined Tuesday after he attempted to take his life by slashing in his head against a cell pillar. Stieve suffered a lateral skull fracture in the suicide attempt. His condition is not serious.

Meanwhile, police today are investigating several facets of the murder all of which they assert will point to Stieve as the murderer.

The suspect earlier claimed that he and Miss Gowland dined at the Mission Grill, 2834 Mission Street, last Wednesday night... the evening of the murder. Officials said employees of the restaurant could not identify pictures of either Miss Gowland or Stieve.

Stabbed Twice

Police believe that Miss Gowland was preparing dinner at her home at the time of the killing. When found, several days after death, she was dressed in an apron. She was discovered, stabbed twice, on the floor of the dining room.

Neighbors assert that Miss Gowland told them that Stieve was coming to dinner that evening, police said. To date officers believe that Stieve was the last man to see Mrs. Gowland alive.

Questioned for hours before his suicide attempt, Stieve insisted on his innocence.

Cleared

Fred Wyckoff, assistant district attorney, said Wednesday that three other men with whom Miss Gowland had been acquainted were cleared.

Jeff Strong, 55-year-old bank messenger, has been absolved of any part in the crime.

Police believe that Stieve killed Miss Gowland in a jealous rage after she jilted him for Strong.

Strong was the first suspect when the knife which had apparently killed Miss Gowland (a large hunting knife wiped clear of blood), was found to have his initials carved on the sheath. Police still have to determine whether or not the knife was the murder weapon.

Struggle

Miss Gowland was stabbed in the chest and left shoulder, with some type of knife. Bruises on her throat indicated that she had also been choked. Overturned furniture was evidence that a terrific struggle took place at the time of the slaying.

And here again, police must determine the time of death. Miss Gowland is presumed to have been slain after 6 p.m. last Wednesday.

It is almost certain the piano teacher knew her assailant, as all the doors and windows of the two-story stucco home were locked, and Miss Gowland must have let him in through the front door.

County Population Totals 235,659

APRIL 5. (CNS)—The final and official count of California population for the 1950 census was received in Sacramento this week.

Final figures give the state 10,586,223 population instead of the preliminary count of 10,490,070, the report from the Bureau of the Census said.

In the preliminary count, the population of San Mateo county for 1950 was fixed at 234,080, but the final count gives the county a total of 235,659.

In its announcement, the bureau says all previous figures are superseded by this report.

The final census figures were an issue in the recent reapportionment battle in the assembly, but when the measure is considered in the senate, the official figures will be available.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By DIANE DALY

April Fool's Day was almost overlooked last week, in the swift succession of civil and social affairs dotting the local agenda.

An reflection thereof might be that Time has us fooled when we consider that this is the month of April, ALREADY, and most home-makers have only just finished removing the veneer of Christmas and Easter. Well, that's how it is. Sometimes we are too busy with big things to enjoy the little things, and other times we are so concerned with the little details we have no time for the really important things.

A sense of values might seem inherent, or at least well developed in the women who are constantly engaged in exchanging money for maximum value, but actually the monetary awareness does not seem to apply in matters of more abstract nature. Too often we drift along in a course, without the slightest idea or portent of destination. We cling to old ideas, prejudices and patterns without stopping to figure out whether they are what we want, or whether, like Topsy, they "just growed." The link between aspiration and achievement lies in a plan, and the shortest distance between two given points is still "a straight line." If your ship on the sea of finance, matrimony, social or religious activity is not smooth sailing, now is the time to quit being fooled. Chart your course and really be "Master of your Fate."

Sunday Sermon Topic Announced

Rev. Clifford H. Jope, minister of the First Christian Church of San Francisco, is now preaching every Sunday morning at the 9:30 Worship and Communion Service at the Ocean View Branch Sunday School and Church.

This Sunday his sermon topic will be: "Guest of The King." The organization meets at 107 Sagamore Street. The building has been recently equipped for services.

At the opening of the building last Sunday, scores of regular church members and visitors turned out to welcome Rev. Jope.

The Sunday School, supervised by Mrs. Henry Blair and Mrs. Earl Lefebvre, has been functioning for the last six months. Several new students were enrolled last Sunday, and there is still plenty of room for other children.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Red Cross Chapter To Extend Drive

With only $86,000 subscribed to date in the 1951 Red Cross fund campaign, the fund raising committee of the local chapter, headed by Mrs. Harry Durand, announced this week that it will be necessary to extend the drive for two more weeks.

"They feel," Mrs. Durand said, "that the goal of $135,000 which was set by chapter officials as the minimum amount needed to carry out the chapter's program plus added services delegated to Red Cross by government and the military, should be easily attained from the population of approximately 250,000 residing in the chapter area."

Broadway-Burlingame business, under the direction of Howard Imus and his corps of solicitors, is the only group which has so far met its quota. Imus, in his report, stressed the generosity and cooperation of the merchants in that section. He stated that their quota was reached before the end of March.

"We feel," Mrs. Durand said, "that if Mr. Imus' group can do it, so can other groups. Also, I am sure there are many persons, and perhaps business firms, who wish to aid the great work of the Red Cross, but who, for some reason, have not been reached by our solicitors. I earnestly urge all such persons to mail a check at once to our headquarters at 1449 Bellevue Avenue, Burlingame. These contributions will be credited to the communities from which they come."

Canadian Nurses To Practice Here

APRIL 5. (CNS)—Nurses from the Dominion of Canada and from other states would be permitted to practice in California during a period of emergency ending October 2, 1953, under a bill passed this week by the assembly and sent to the senate.

Introduced by Assemblyman Arthur H. Connolly, Jr., San Francisco, as an urgency measure, the bill is designed to relieve a shortage of trained nurses in California.

Nurses from Canada must either be citizens of the United States or have declared their intention of becoming citizens.

The assembly at the same time passed and sent to the senate a bill tightening laws governing physical or physiotherapists who would only be allowed to practice after examination before a board of Medical examiners.

In former years, as many as 50 bucket-ladder dredges were operated in California's gold mining area.

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert G. Konzelman and their two children, Gretchen and Greg, will motor south to Arcadia, California, next week to attend the Convention of the California District of the American Lutheran Church.

Dr. Marie Bonfilio Moves Office to D.C.

Dr. Marie Bonfilio, physician and surgeon, established her new offices at 7394 Mission Street, Daly City, on March 5.

Dr. Bonfilio was graduated from the Creighton School of Medicine in Omaha, Nebraska, in 1941. She served her internship at the Women and Children's Hospital and later became assistant resident at St. Mary's Hospital in obstetrics and gynecology.

Before moving to Daly City, Dr. Bonfilio had been established in North Beach for eight years. She does not limit her practice to women only.

Originally from San Jose, she now resides in Burlingame. During her off time she is busy taking care of her three children, two girls and a boy.

M&S Motors Offers Complete Credit Advice On Cars

Are credit problems a stumbling block towards a purchase of a used car?

Well, your worries are over when you look at any of the automobiles on the M&S Motors lot at 5440 Mission. Congenial manager Fred J. Mowrey is in a position to not only sell you a car, but also to finance the payments according to your budget.

Mowrey, a veteran of the used car business, has been authorized to do his own financing on machines sold from his lot. This authorization comes from Consumer Credit, which in turn is backed up by the U. S. Government Federal Reserve Bank.

As a licensed and bonded dealer, Mowrey can not only sell you the best used car in the Bay Area, but he will arrange the financing so you will be able to purchase the machine without putting everything under mortgage.

"In these days financing is the principal headache," Mowrey noted today. "It is my purpose to remove that headache as effectively as a dose of aspirin."

Come into M&S Motors today, 5440 Mission, at the sign of the two rabbits. Mowrey guarantees you will leave with the automobile of your dream. Credit arrangements will be made suitable to you, and your pocketbook.

IOJD Bethel No. 198 To Meet Friday Night

From A Corner

By Bill Katz

We received a report this week that the "6631 Club" at the same number on Mission Street has formed a club within a club.

Avowed purpose of the novel organization is to apply a touch of etiquette to the bar room. It goes like this: Any gent bending an elbow is asked to refrain from cursing. He who curses is automatically fined. He drops a nickel, a dime, or a large amount, depending on how many times he has bent the elbow into a container. He is then a member of the "Sweaters' Club." A god many membership cards have been taken out recently, and not a few by the gals.

Sin Pays

This is one case where the wages of sin is nothing but pure joy. All the dough from the collection is turned over to needy children.

Congrats to the "6631 Club" on a good idea, but we wonder where they would be if swearing wasn't considered such a blotch on morals and speech.

The whole topic of cursing is an interesting one, especially when treated objectively. Why, for example, should certain words allegedly send a shudder up the back of a gentleman or lady? Who chose the words as "bad"? Why swear at all?

And so it goes. We remember in Europe that a German we knew could "tolerate" the Americans for their ignorance of the arts and civilization, but he could never accept himself to using the Name of God or Jesus Christ as a curse. He wasn't religious man, but there were certain things sacred.

Animals

On the other hand, the same German (or for that matter any German or Frenchman) considered it an offense to be called by the name of an animal, such a "swine" or "pig." This is the ultimate in cursing for the European. Not that they don't know all those words associated with sex taboos, but in countries where sex is taken for granted these words are rarely employed.

The Chinese consider nothing worse than taking the name of a dead parent or relative in vain. Many Americans delight in cursing roundly Uncle Joe who died without leaving them a nickel.

Consequently, it would appear that the word, or phonetics treated as swearing, differ from country to country, and what is bad in one is looked on favorably in another. It also might be noted that 300 years ago Shakespeare employed words and phrases in his plays written for the general public that appear offensive today. Times change, and with them come new curse words and treatment of older words as swearing. Why? We leave this to the historians and Dr. Kinsey.

Explanation

The simple psychological reason for employing words to "frighten" the tender minded is that it is one way of using a stick on society without suffering the consequences of more violent acts. There is nothing half so pleasing to anyone as to shock, especially when in a rage.

Why certain words should shock, and others have no effect is something else again. Why can't we use four letter anglo saxon words in this column? The answer is simply that it is forbidden because those words are considered not decent. We go along with this formula, although we will be blazed why we can understand that these words are intrinsically bad.

To take off on another tangent during the war many a man employed many a word he rarely uses today. In the ranks those words were accepted as nothing unusual. In fact, one four letter word became so popular that it threatened to be the most effective adjective and adverb in army vocabulary. This same word, if used widely by the populace, would soon be forgotten. But because it is "verboten," it still employs a place in the language of cursing.

Not Approved

All of this is not to condone swearing. We consider it bad, chiefly because it shows a lack of imagination and a poor vocabulary. Who will use simple four letter words when six letters are more descriptive and just as easy to learn and pronounce?

No, cursing is a bad thing. Yet someday we plan to investigate the matter more closely. Readers with any ideas on the subject are invited to write THE RECORD.

DEAR PARENTS

By Jane Keith

A little old lady, arthritis and conversation bent, "picked me up" in front of the Campus theatre in Berkeley last week and gave me the time of my life while I waited for my train back to San Francisco.

She was really little and so old she looked almost transparent. Nice little and nice old, especially when you saw her eyes. The "lady" part of her made me stand up straight the moment she spoke to me and wonder if my seams were straight and why hadn't I worn gloves.

"A really nice day" she said moving over to my side and giving me a tentative sort of smile. "Lovely," I answered politely. But the lady wasn't having any stilted politeness, thank you! Her hand flicked out toward the picture on the theatre billboard and two sharp blue eyes directed mine away from possible escape down the street.

"You know," she said "in my day, public spirited people would have torn that thing down and burned it."

Up in Arms

I groaned inwardly and waited for the usual tirade against young America's manners and morals. The phony pornography on the poster beside me was pure Hollywood and bore no living or dead relation to my life and loves, nor to those of my friends but just the same—I know that "Young America" look and all the criticism that goes with it.

"Yes," she continued "they would have been up in arms about a poster like that—my father especially!" She winked at me then and gave a quick look around. "I don't think he would have burned it, though."

"What would he have done with it?"

"Well, confidentially, I think he would have thrown out the one he had hidden in his desk."

CAPS, GOWNS AND PUBLIC APATHY

Several letters on the controversial "cap and gown question have been printed in recent issues of THE RECORD.

As readers know, the Jefferson Elementary School Board recently proposed graduating students should wear the traditional cap and gown. Purpose of this action was to eliminate students' parents putting out needed dollars for expensive graduation clothes.

THE RECORD went on record in favor of the school board's action. However, other readers expressed indignation over the proposal.

We are happy to see that the Daly City public has a voice; has expressed the sound and fury that is democracy at work. It is unfortunate that this same public does not see fit to express itself more often, and about possibly more important things.

Witness our Daly City council meetings. Rarely are more than a half-dozen citizens present to observe the laws and acts passed by the council which directly affect their welfare. Witness the apathy of the public to such things as the need for bus shelters, eliminating pin ball machines for juveniles, rent controls, and other major and minor items of interest to every citizen.

We suspect that if we could understand the wide interest in such a thing as "caps and gowns" we would discover the key to public interest, would be able to stir up the public to other events of importance.

Anyone who can suggest a solution to the problem of public apathy is invited to write THE RECORD.

PRAISE FOR SCHOOL OFFICIALS

Last Sunday the first unit of the new Colma school was dedicated; but more than that, Sunday's ceremony was a tribute to Superintendent of Schools James Snell and the Jefferson Elementary School Board.

Through the efforts of these three men and a woman, the Colma school has been taken off the planning board. This means that for the next three months double sessions will be a thing of the past for the majority of Daly City students. The Colma school represents a real advance in the educational standards of Daly City. At long last students who have been receiving only "half an education" will have the opportunity to attend school full time.

It was a hard fight to convince the "powers which be," and the public at large, that the new schools were needed for this area. Leading the fight was Snell and the School Board. Had we had a less strong-willed group of men and women, chances are we all still would be talking about a new school instead of seeing it opened last Sunday.

And do not forget another important man. He is Architect Mario Ciampi whose understanding and appreciation of modern design, both artistic and functional, is responsible for one of the finest schools in this area. We are indeed fortunate to have such a fine architect designing the schools of tomorrow, today.

RED CROSS DRIVE CONTINUES

While a majority of Daly City residents have given generously to the Red Cross drive, the city is still far from its $2900 quota.

Only two weeks remain in the current Red Cross drive to obtain necessary funds for the coming year's work.

More than ever the Red Cross needs funds, for it is now confronted with exceptional difficulties. There are increased demands for both military and civilian services, but not enough money to meet the higher cost burdens.

The Red Cross can contribute to the welfare of mankind only in proportion to the means provided by our citizens.

Do your part to help yourself, your friends, and your countrymen. Give to the Red Cross today.

PIN BALL MACHINE "OWNERS" ACT

Number of lads and lassies under 18 counted playing pin ball machines in local establishments after 10 p.m. Monday: 4.

Number of High School students playing pin ball machines in another establishment at noon Tuesday: 3.

While the city refuses to take notice of the pin ball scandal, the proprietors of the restaurants and cafes where the machines are kept have taken their own action. For example, last Monday night one of the more thoughtful managers ran six juveniles out of his place of business after 10 p.m.

It is too bad that parents and the city isn't as mindful of the welfare of the juveniles of this community.

CALIFORNIA STATE INCOME TAX

by Thomas H. Kuchel

(This is the first of a series of articles prepared under the direction of Thomas H. Kuchel, Chairman of the Franchise Tax Board, relative to the liability of taxpayers under the California Personal Income Tax Law.)

State income tax returns for the year 1950 are required to be filed by single individuals having a net income of $2,000 or more, married persons having an aggregate net income of $3,500 or more, or in either case if the gross income is $5,000 or more regardless of the amount of net income.

Estate of deceased persons are also required to file if having a net income of $1,000 or more, or a gross income of $5,000 or more regardless of the amount of net income; trusts must also file if having a net income of $100 or more, or a gross income of $5,000 or more; every California partnership and every foreign partnership deriving income from California sources must file a return regardless of the amount of net or gross income.

Net income

Net income may be defined as gross taxable income less allowable deductions. Personal exemptions and credits for dependents are not considered as deductions in computing the amount of this net income limitation for filing returns.

In determining liability to file, the differences between the Federal Revenue Law and the California law must be borne in mind. While generally speaking, liability to file under the Federal Law is based only upon gross income, the State law is based upon both net and gross income.

FORMS—Form 540 is the only form provided for resident individuals for use in filing 1950 personal income tax returns. This form allows taxpayers with adjusted gross incomes of less than $5,000, regardless of the source of the income, to use the Optional Tax Table if they so elect. Husband and wife filing separate returns may use the Optional Tax Table only if the other spouse also uses the Optional Tax Table, or takes the Standard Deduction of $300. Non-resident individuals should use Form 540NR. Returns for estates and trusts should be filed on Form 541, and partnerships returns on Form 563. Instructions accompanying these forms should be carefully read.

FILING—Returns must be filed by taxpayers reporting on the calendar year basis on or before April 16, 1951. Taxpayers reporting on the fiscal year basis must file on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year. Returns should be filed at the office of the Franchise Tax Board, Sacramento 14, California, or at any of its various branch offices throughout the State.

RATES—The California law provides for a graduated tax ranging from 1 per cent to 6 per cent of taxable income (net income less allowable personal exemption and credit for dependents); i.e., 1 per cent on the first $5,000, 2 per cent on the next $5,000, 3 per cent on the next $5,000, etc. There is no surtax.

No Split

It is of special interest to married persons filing joint income tax returns that the State has not adopted the Federal income tax provisions which permits spouses filing a joint Federal return to "split" their income for the purpose of computing their joint Federal income tax liability. Separate returns may be filed, however, on which each spouse may report one-half of the community income plus all of his or her separate income, and compute the tax on the basis of the net taxable income disclosed by each return.

The California Community Property Laws provide that income from property acquired by married persons not purchased out of separate funds after July 29, 1927, and all salaries, wages and fees earned after that date are the income of both husband and wife. Income community property states before becoming a resident of California and income from property acquired in non-community property states before becoming a resident of California and income from property acquired prior to July 29, 1927, or prior to marriage is the separate income of the spouse who owns the property and must be reported on his or her return.

Taxpayers filing joint California personal income tax returns must continue, as in the past, to compute their joint tax liability on the basis of their aggregate net taxable income.

FOR SAFETY'S SAKE

When parking, it is always well to stop the car before backing near enough to another car to crush any pedestrian who might be passing between the two cars at that moment, advises the National Automobile Club. If a pedestrian has been daydreaming, your hesitating gives him or her an opportunity to step aside.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

CROCKER ROOM 1

The seventh grade in Room 1 is studying complex sentences in English. In arithmetic they are working problems that concern the standards of FHA loans.

ROOM 3

The children of the fifth grade in Room 3 have begun their study of present-day California. They expect to make a map booklet showing the location of various industries within the state, as well as the distribution of California's many farm crops.

In language they are learning to distinguish between a complete and an incomplete sentence. They are also learning some of the basic parts of speech.

ROOM 4

The sixth grade visited the De Young Museum to see the Children's Art Exhibit which was on display during March. The class was impressed with much of the work and came back feeling inspired to do likewise. They were particularly interested in a totem pole made by a sixth grade, as they will soon be studying about British Columbia and Alaska.

Enroute to the Museum a side trip was made to see the bridge of the S. S. San Francisco overlooking the Golden Gate.

Crocker and Colma Schools are engaging in the National Spelling Bee to be held in the near future. Selected from each class in the building were contestants to compete against each other. Due to the opening of the first intermediate school of the district, housing the 7th and 8th graders of Crocker, it was necessary to hold two separate sections, namely, one for the 5th and 6th grade groups to represent Crocker, and one for the 7th and 8th grade groups to represent the new Colma School.

Class winners who competed against each other to represent Crocker were: Loretta Berg, Philip Fortier, Cecil Champagne, Gail O'Brien, and Joan Baird. These students included both A.M., P.M., and regular session students. Winners who are now ready for the finals are Loretta Berg and Joan Baird.

The 7th and 8th grade contestants included: Linda Amundsen, Dick Hopman, Diane Thompson, Donald Koskinen, Carole Tydingco, and Joseph Baird. The two winners of this group now to compete for the representation of Colma School are Linda Amundsen and Joseph Baird.

Questions Flood Tumor Clinic

The San Mateo County Tumor Clinic has been so overwhelmed recently with questions as to its various services, that Dr. E. I. Bartlett, Director of the Tumor Board is pleased to issue the following statement:

"The Tumor Clinic is made of several elements: patients, doctors, equipment, a medical secretary and nurses aides. There is a small rotating board of doctors with a permanent chairman. The doctors' services to the clinic are voluntary, as are those of the nurses' aides. To this clinic all the doctors of the San Mateo County Medical Society have access. They may bring their patients there for consultation, and for the opinions of the other doctors on the consulting board.

"These doctors are specialists in many fields: internists, pathologists, surgeons, radiologists, gynecologists, dermatologists, almost every type of specialist is concerned with cancer.

"Mrs. Bruce Gibson, the medical secretary takes notes, writes reports and is a mine of statistical information."

Mrs. Bruce Gibson continued: "The clinic meets every Tuesday morning at 10:30 at Mills Memorial Hospital. This room is donated by the hospital for this purpose on Tuesdays.

"From 15 to 25 doctors are usually assembled by 10:30 when the clinic commences.

"Two or three follow-up patients are admitted, one at a time. Before they come in, their histories are reviewed. The doctors examine them, and the patients are then dismissed, and then each case is thoroughly discussed.

ATOMIC BOMB LIFE SAVERS

What about atom bomb burns?

Near the center of the blast the burns are often fatal.

People may be seriously burned more than a mile away, while the heat can be felt on the hands and face at four to five miles.

To prevent flash burns, try to find shelter where there is a wall, high bank or some other object between you and the bursting bomb.

A little bit of solid material will provide flash protection even close to the explosion. Farther out, the tinnest sort of thing—even cotton cloth—will do the trick.

If you work in the open, always wear full-length, loose-fitting, light-colored clothes in time of emergency. Never go around with your sleeves rolled up. Always wear a hat—the brim may protect you from serious face burns.

Flash burns from the A-bomb's light and heat caused 30 per cent of the injuries at Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Hundreds Attend Sunday Dedication Of Colma School

by Diane Daly

(Exclusive to The Record)

Clear and sunny skies marked the Sunday afternoon dedication of the new Colma School, the newest addition to the Jefferson School District, which will serve the seventh and eighth grades.

The school, located at Market Street off Hillside Boulevard, is quite a study in contrasts. A modernistic structure, it is set on an almost level plateau surrounded by pastoral scenery and rolling slopes, with barns, horses and flower farms to give it an authentic rural touch. As near to a country school as you will ever see, and yet as far, since it is the last word in modern architecture, its design cleverly encompassing the utmost in beauty and convenience.

James Snell, Superintendent of Elementary Schools (Jefferson Dist.) acted as master of ceremonies in the absence of Michael Callan who was to have officiated, but was taken ill.

Rev. John A. Glaspe, Broadmoor Community Church, gave the opening invocation which was followed by the raising of the flag by local American Legion and V.F.W. contingents.

After the singing of the national anthem, Mr. James R. Tormey, County School Superintendent, introduced the citizens of this area and Colma for the concerted efforts of the many whose foresight and work made possible this much needed school. He touched lightly and amusingly on old county records of school openings in San Mateo county, wherein hogs appeared on the scene for higher learning, also to the delight of the children and despair of the teachers. Recalling an early School Board composed of marriageable men whose elections for teachers seemed based on their subsequent eligibility for matrimony, brought chuckles from the audience.

On the more serious side, Mr. Tormey stressed strict adherence to democracy in the schools, with vigilance the watchword and participation the obligation of parents and teachers alike.

President of School Trustees, (San Mateo County) Mrs. Stella Jensen, introduced next, proved to be a very gracious speaker. Her evaluation of the school spirit in its different aspects was interesting and well received. Introduced from the platform were Mayor Paul Green, Daly City, Mario J. Campi, architect, Elementary School Trustees Helen Cheatham and Mr. Andrew Van der Werff.

The Jefferson High School Board was represented by Mr. Pete Amarovich, Mr. Tom Callan Sr., Mrs. Anna M. Eason and Mrs. Mildred McGee. Mr. Stanford Hannah, District Superintendent of Jefferson High, was also on hand. Thanks were tendered Mr. Fred Bertette, D. C. Councilman and former Elementary School Trustee, for his outstanding effort. Miss Marjorie Tobias, Principal of the new school was congratulated and thanked for readying the classrooms for the initial showing.

In the tradition of the Native Sons of the Golden West, Mr. Edward J. Wren, Grand President, who was accompanied by Mr. John T. Regan, Grand Secretary, formally dedicated the Colma School to the principles of Truth, Liberty and Tolerance. The traditional plaque, not available with present metal restriction, will be duly inscribed thus, and laid at a later date.

Mrs. Muriel Vint, Music Director, led the Elementary orchestra in "America" and heads were bowed as Father Reali, of the Holy

CALIFORNIA LAST WEEK

The Governor made a large number of minor appointments and issued a proclamation naming March 26 to 31 as "Advertising Recognition Week."

The Legislature received a reapportionment plan from Republican Assemblyman Laughlin E. Waters of Los Angeles county, which gave the south 16 and the north 14 congressmen. Immediately, Democratic legislators started lining up partisan votes to amend reapportionment and equalize the number for the north and south. The bill is before the assembly for action.

Work on Governor Earl Warren's billion, nineteen million dollar budget started in earnest in the assembly, with some 135 amendments adopted by the house. Senate committees under Senator Ben Hulse's finance committee also are starting work on the document, passage of which is required before any special appropriation bills can be passed.

The assembly oked funds for Governor Earl Warren's reactivation of his crime commission, despite one assemblyman's plea that it was nothing but a waste of the taxpayer's money, as Attorney General Pat Brown is well equipped to handle necessary investigations.

Miscellaneous: And speaking of Brown, Senator Kefauver issued a statement absolving Brown of any blame in connection with arch-lobbyist Artie Samish' gift of $5,000 to Brown's campaign committee. And at the same time, Brown maintains he's not under Samish domination because of the gift.

Dixon Announces He Is Still Active

Fred Dixon this week announced he is still alive... in fact, he is doing a booming real estate business.

During the past six years he has sold 312 homes in Daly City. He plans to live a good many more years, and sell many more homes.

You can meet Dixon at 5482 Mission Street, or call him at JU19er 5-2622. He will sell your home.

W. C. Lasswell Co. To Remodel Soon

A $50,000 remodeling of the W. C. Lasswell & Co. Mortuary at 6154 Mission Street, will get underway next week, it was announced today.

The single largest improvement will be the installation of a chapel with a seating capacity of 250.

Work of remodeling will not interfere with conduct of business in the present structure, B. J. Lasswell announced.

Established here in 1894 by the late Edward Lasswell, the firm is presently conducted by Lasswell's two daughters and son: Ida May Lasswell, Edna Lasswell Lyett, and B. J. Lasswell.

Watch Charming

VELVET-VOICED songstress May Belle Callaway of Memphis, Tenn., whose "Dream Time" program is heard on 415 radio stations, displays a cap and blouse decorated with gold-plated cog wheels from old watches which she collects as a hobby. (ANS Features)

Angels Catholic church, Colma, closed the ceremony with benediction.

Enthusiastic approval of the interior was shown by the record attendance, as they inspected the classrooms with their light wood paneling and new type desks of matching hue, not to mention the concealed features of acoustics, concrete slab heating and electronic bell device.

Junior Hostesses welcomed visitors to their rooms which were to be occupied the beginning of the week, and the Student Body received in the Principal's Office. Refreshments were served at an improved Buffet, by the Crocker and Colma Units of the PTA.

SCANNING THE WEEK'S NEWS of Main Street and the World

Eisenhower Says He Would Employ A-Bomb Under Certain Conditions

DECISION—"To my mind the use of the atomic bomb would be on this basis."

"Does it advantage me, or does it not, when I get into a war? Now, if I felt that the material destruction that I was going to accomplish was not equal to the moral or great reaction otherwise to this act, then I would abstain."

"If I thought the net was on my side, I would use it instantly, because I proceed from this basis: The United States is not going to declare war or conduct an aggressive campaign. It is merely going to defend itself, and if someone, in spite of its peaceful purpose, jumps on it, I believe in using what we have in defending ourselves."

With these words Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower told the world—friend and foe alike—just how far he would go to defend western Europe. It was the kind of clear-headed, logical reasoning that people in the home towns of the nation could understand. It reaffirmed their faith in the man chosen to fill the most important post in modern history.

It is this kind of reasoning and determination that the Communist nations of the world understand. And if the world understands this reasoning, it could mean another step toward the preservation of peace.

18-YEAR-OLDS—It would be difficult to say at this point who was more surprised by the 79 to 5 senate vote that passed the bill to draft 18-year-olds, opponents or supporters of the measure.

For weeks the debate had raged in the senate over lowering the draft age from the 19-year-old limit. And although the bill must go to the house for action, it appeared that much of the pressure against the administration's defense plans has been relieved. Most observers were inclined to believe the bill will eventually reach the President's desk.

Striving desperately to make peace between labor and the administration, Eric Johnston (center), economic stabilizer, met several times with union leaders in Washington. Shown with Johnston (left to right) are: Meany, AFL; Leighty, RLEZ; Hayes, IAM; Murphy, presidential council; and Goldberg, CIO.

NOT NO! NO!—After a full week of conferences, watched anxiously by the "average man" who does not understand very clearly the niceties of diplomatic language and maneuvers, the foreign ministers' deputies of the United States, France, Britain and Russia, meeting in Paris, had nothing to report.

The only statements were "no, no" issued by Russia's Andrei Gromyko to every proposal put forth by the western powers.

Gromyko first gained the attention of the home-townners of the nation as the "no" man of the United Nations.

The main point of difference between the west and east remained the subject of rearming Germany.

KOREAN BATTLE—Slowly, methodically United Nations troops advanced in Korea, storming the hills, digging the Communists' out of foxholes with bayonets, stopping and breaking a Red attack at other points, but always pushing toward the 38th parallel.

U. N. commanders continued to expect a spring offensive by the Reds, scheduled for some time during the last part of March or April. Meanwhile, the Chinese suffered severe casualties as U. S. troops pushed ahead, estimated by some observers at 20,000 to 30,000 in two weeks.

There were reports that the Communists had 200,000 men in the front lines below the parallel. In addition they were reported to have 100,000 more troops in immediate reserve in North Korea and a great reservoir, perhaps more than 300,000, across the Yalu river in Manchuria.

RUSSIAN ARMS—According to Russian reports the Supreme Soviet (Parliament) has adopted a 1951 budget of 45 1/2 billion rubles, of which 96 billion would go for defense purposes.

Russia has placed a value on the ruble of four to the American dollar, but since there are so many imponderables involved, the rate does not reflect the true position of the ruble. If the rate is taken, it would indicate a total defense budget of $24 billion.

However, Soviet production, through use of forced labor and purchases from dominated countries at extremely favorable rates, is considerably cheaper than that of the United States.

A NEW JOLT—The administration's price stabilization effort which has been called nearly everything, including "fraud", received another jolt, this time in the black and white of the wholesale price index.

The bureau of labor statistics' index hit an all time peak of 17 per cent above pre-Korean war prices and 20.2 per cent over a year ago. The bureau said all major commodities advanced except building materials.

The new figures wiped out any hope that the stabilization effort had finally started taking effect and a leveling-off was about to take place. The figures also brought renewed charges from labor that it would take a law "with teeth in it" to stop the inflation spiral.

Michael V. DiSalle, price director, told worried housewives in a television speech that it would be three more months before ceiling prices on food will be posted in stores. It couldn't be done sooner, he reported, because food prices vary by localities.

LAST HOPE—The supreme court refused by a vote of 6 to 0 to review the case of Alger Hiss, convicted of giving government secrets to a Russian spy ring before World War II. It was Hiss' last hope of escaping a five year prison sentence.

The Hiss trial made headlines in the nation's press for months. A guilty verdict and prison sentence was returned after a second trial.

The slender, brilliant attorney has stubbornly denied the charges of giving away government secrets.

COST OF LIBERTY

1,000,000th Man to Die for Country

The cost of liberty is high for this Republic.

As mothers and fathers throughout the nation ponder over the world's ills and worry about their sons in service, or soon to join the armed forces, somewhere in the mud and filth of Korea the 1,000,000th soldier to die for this nation may already be a casualty.

Adding in the Korea casualties, 995,100 men have died in defense of this Republic. This total, however, is not up to date since reporting of Korean casualties is two to four weeks behind. The latest Korean total stood at 52,448. Of these, 8,853 were dead of all causes and 9,899 missing. The remainder were wounded. This amounted to 300 weekly since the war started last June.

ON THE OTHER HAND...

By Bob Quinlan

A direct move to stamp out the fixing of college basketball games was taken this week at three New York City colleges — New York University, Manhattan College, and St. John's College.

The basketball operational committee, set up by the schools, announced that summer resort competition would be out of bounds for its players.

The ban on hotel-resort competition by college players was originated by Phog Allen, University of Arkansas basketball mentor, and seconded by Walt McPherson, San Jose State College cage coach.

"These hotel-resorts are breeding places for gamblers," McPherson claims.

The resorts, mostly the ones in the Rocky Mountains area, hire during summer vacation the nation's outstanding college basketball players as life guards, dish washers, and bus boys, paying them huge salaries.

Each resort then forms a basketball team that plays against the other resort teams for the benefit of the guests on the warm summer nights.

On the surface this appears to be an ideal setup for all parties concerned, but soon gambling steps into the picture.

The trouble begins when the gamblers, betting on the winning teams, begin slipping 10 or 20 dollar bills to the players who gave good performances and made the victory possible. This keeps up for awhile and soon the players expect a reward for turning in a good game.

By this time the gamblers know the players personally and are ready to make their kill. In the latter part of the summer season they tell the players that they will make the reward much higher if a certain team wins by a certain amount of points.

Tempted by the big money and telling themselves that it really didn't matter whether the resort team won, the players finally relent to the gamblers.

After the summer the players return to their schools with their pockets bulging with money. Soon all is forgotten, and the collegiate basketball season rolls around. The players are now ready to give their all for their school.

However, this is when the gamblers re-enter into the picture. By threatening to expose the players for throwing the summer resort games, the gamblers now have them in the palm of their hands. The players have to "play ball" with them.

With so many players not playing their best it is easy for cage officials to detect the false play. The players are caught, expelled from school, and disgraced.

Thus many of the nation's wholesome young men are disgraced because a few gamblers are out to make an easy "buck."

YWCA Offers Many Coed Activities

The doors of the YWCA swing open to many coed activities. Follows are welcome to join the girls in sports, crafts, clubs, and dancing with the new Spring term starting the first week of April at 620 Sutter Street.

High on the popularity list are the informal recreational activities such as the Social Dancing classes given on Thursday nights for beginners and advanced. Folk Dancing also on Thursday nights, and Square Dancing with Randy Randolph as caller on Wednesday and Friday nights. Each of these classes provides a sociable evening with good "mixers" for young men and women. Teen Inn on Monday nights provides informal dancing and refreshments for older teenagers. Jr. Hostesses hold a dance for younger service men every Friday night from 7:30 to 11:00 p.m.

Along the sports line, the fellows can join the girls in the swimming pool for a recreation swim on Wednesday nights from 8:00 to 9:30 p.m. A coed Badminton Club has been organized recently with coaching and practice in actual games and the possibilities of developing team play. Also, the Badminton court is available for play certain hours on Monday and Friday evenings. For those who like volleyball, a class will be started soon.

Leathercraft, silk screen printing, poster making are among the creative classes offered to both men and women at the 620 Sutter Street YWCA. The San Francisco Artists' Series, where the public meets local artists and talks with them about their art, is open to this group.

There are three clubs open to both fellows and girls at the 620 Sutter Street YWCA. The Wed-

Fish and Game Department Plants Trout In Local Lakes, Reservoirs

Lakes and reservoirs in six San Francisco Bay Area counties are being planted this week by the Division of Fish and Game with 65,000 catchable-sized trout raised at the East Side Reservoir near Napa.

The six- to eight-inch fish will have a chance to grow and become used to their new homes before the April 28 opening of the early trout angling season, reports the Bureau of Fish Conservation.

The rainbows are being planted in waters of Napa, Marin, Mendocino, San Francisco, Santa Clara, and Monterey counties.

Sportsman's Calendar

The Division of Fish and Game and California sportsmen of the following general regulations which apply to current hunting and fishing.

Jack Rabbits—No closed season except in Southern California districts 4, 4A, 4B, 19, 20 and 22, now closed. No bag limit. Hunting license required.

Black Bass, Snafish, Crappie, Sacramento Perch—Closed until April 28 in all counties north of Mono, Madera, Fresno, Kings, and San Luis Obispo. No closed season elsewhere or in Clear Lake. Bag limits: 5 black bass, 25 sunfish, crappie, perch. Local exceptions. No size limits.

Striped Bass—No closed season. Bag limit: 5 fish or 25 pounds and one fish, or 2 fish regardless of weight. Minimum size limit: 12 inches.

Catfish—No closed season. Bag and possession limits: 15 pounds and one fish in the round, or 8 pounds and one fish dressed. Minimum size: 9 inches in Clear Lake; 10 inches in District 22; none elsewhere. Night fishing permitted in District 22, Siskiyou, Shasta, Modoc and Lake counties.

Shad—No closed season. Bag limit: 5 fish between June 10 and March 14. No limit at other times. Angling hours: from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset, or by hand dipnet at any time.

Ocean Fish—No closed season on the following species (bag limit included): 15 rockfish; 2 marlin; 2 black sea bass; 3 salmon; 2 broadbill swordfish; 10 tuna, croaker, skipjack, albacore, barramundi.

Wednesday Club is for those 18 to 24 years old, working or attending school or college. The program includes dancing, socials, trips. The Y Social Club, for men and women 23 to 35 years, stresses informal dancing and recreation with occasional special events. This group meets Thursday evenings. The Young Adult Social Club meets Thursday evenings. The Young Adult Social Club meets the third Saturday of each month, with parties and dances organized by young Nisei men and women to meet new friends.

Sunday Open House, held second and fourth Sunday of each month this Spring, has proved most popular. An informal drop-in occasion for all young people in the San Francisco area, it features dances, discussions on current topics, and social recreation with something new each time.

All of these YWCA clubs and activities welcome newcomers to drop in and see for themselves what fun they can have as a group, enlarging their circle of friends and their scope of activities.

888 Predatory Animals Caught—The California Division of Fish and Game has reported a take of 888 predatory animals by its hunters and trappers during the month of February.

The total includes 203 coyotes, 195 skunks, 115 bobcats, and 99 raccoons. One mountain lion was taken in Colusa County, and one in San Luis Obispo County.

California sportsmen and those interested in conservation of the State's fish and game resources have been invited to take a look at half-a-dozen official publications now on the "best seller" list of the Division of Fish and Game.

The agency's central public information office distributes free publications at a rate averaging 3,000 a month. The booklets and mimeographed articles are financed with proceeds of hunting and angling license fees.

By sending a post card or letter to the Division of Fish and Game, Ferry Building, San Francisco, interested citizens may obtain single copies of the following popular publications:

The Warm-water Games Fishes of California; Basic Deer Management; California's Fish and Game Program; A Report to the Wildlife Conservation Board; Fish and Game Laws and The Reasons For Them; Edible Bivalves; and The Striped Bass Fishing Map.

Santos, Vets Inn Win Cage Contests

Jeff Mermen Meet San Mateo Today

Jefferson High's swimming team plays host to San Mateo High today, April 5, in a Peninsula Athletic League meet.

The Jeff mermen where handed their first defeat of the season last Thursday when they dropped a 55-20 verdict to Palo Alto High in the Daly City pool. Palo Alto also won in the class B division, 47-10, and in class C, 24-23.

It was Palo Alto's 70th straight varsity meet victory.

Jefferson's Norm Cady received his first set back in 36 high school outings in the 50-yard free style when Paly's Ed Hardy copped the event in a fast 25 seconds.

Indian Trackmen Enter 3-Way Meet Tomorrow

Jefferson High's track team travels to Redwood City tomorrow, April 6, to enter a three-way meet with San Jose High and Sequoia High.

In the second annual El Cerrito Relays, which was won by Washington High of San Francisco Saturday, Jeff's Vic Baker took a second in the shot and a fourth in the discus, while the Jeff two-mile relay team garnered a fourth place.

The Indian cindermen failed to take a first place in their three-way meet with Palo Alto and San Mateo Highs last Friday at San Mateo. San Mateo captured the meet with 70 points followed by Paly's 53 and Jeff's 12.

The Indians finished third also in the B and C classes.

Hole-In-One Paces SMJC Golf Victory

Paced by Ken West's 135-yard hole-in-one, Ray Balsey's San Mateo Junior College golf squad defeated Stockton College, 11½-3½, Saturday.

The Indians finished third also in the B and C classes.

Weststates Downs Billiards, 7-2

Behind the sparkling three-hit pitching of August Norry, the Westates Realty nine downed the Daly City Billiards, 7-2, Sunday.

Second Baseman George Elhers led the Westates' hitting attack with two hits including a home run. Reg Hartje also chipped in two base hits to aid in the realty club's win.

Norry was followed on the mound by Banks in the seventh frame.

It was the third victory in four starts for Westates since it came under the management of Charles Norry, former manager of the Daly City Faralone Packers. With the help of Coach Gus Foppiano, Norry is attempting to build a class A ball club.

San Mateo Netmen Lose To California Freshmen

San Mateo Junior College's tennis team dropped a 5-3 decision to the University of California frosh net squad last Friday at Berkeley. In the feature match the Bears' Bill Bemis defeated the Bulldogs' Walt Chin, 6-1, 6-1.

JEFFERSON OPENS P. A. L. TITLE DEFENSE AGAINST LINCOLN HIGH ON DALY CITY DIAMOND FRIDAY

Cereghino On Slab For Local Nine

Glenn South's Jefferson High nine opens its defense of its Peninsula Athletic League title tomorrow, April 6, when it meets Lincoln High of San Jose on the Jeff diamond.

South will send his star right hander Ed Cereghino to the mound in the league opener. Cereghino has had a week's rest since he hurled a two-hit 2-1 victory over Balboa. In that game he wiffed 17 Buccaneer batters.

The Indians wound up their exhibition series with an eight win, four lost and one tied record. Two of the losses were 2-1 defeats at the hands of Balboa and Sacred Heart.

The Jeffs will be without the services of Catcher Byron McMahon in the opener. McMahon is nursing an injured shoulder.

South will open with Catcher Mansel Roland leading off, Chuck Donnelly batting second and playing first base, followed by Leo Gianecchini, short stop; Larry Jenkins, right field; Mario Leveroni, center field; Ed Cereghino, pitcher; Gene Lorenzo, second base; Ed Gailghente, left field; and Don Wilson, third base.

Last year Cereghino posted a seven-hit 2-1 win over Lincoln at San Jose.

The Indians closed their practice game series with a wild hitting spree with Polytechnic High that was halted in a 9-9 tie in the seventh inning because of darkness. Donnelly and Jim Hatchel shared the mound duties for Jeff.

Monday afternoon the Indians defeated Rialto High, 5-2, behind the five hit pitching combination of Hatchel and Donnelly. Donnelly aided his own cause by slapping three for four and driving in two runs.

In the Balboa game last Friday Cereghino pitched hitless ball for seven innings before the Bucs put together a triple and a single for their lone tally.

Jeff dented the plate first in the second frame when Roland singled, was sacrificed to second and chased home on McMahon's one-baser. They led the game in the eighth when Roland again singled, moved to third and scored on Gianecchini's long fly.

River Net Fishing Banned By Senate

APRIL 5. (CNS) — The state senate late this week adopted Senate Bill 888, which closes the lower Sacramento and San Joaquin river to net fishing for salmon and shad, by a vote of 28 to 8.

The ballot came following an All-American battle on the measures, spearheaded by Senator Verne Hoffman, San Joaquin county, and Paul L. Byrne, Chico, for the proponents, and Senator George Miller, of Contra Costa county, for the opponents.

In his arguments for the bill, Senator Byrne said he was no statistical expert, but he believed it "is up to the senate to use vision in connection with conservation measures."

Meet The Five Star Cast of the Hilarious CBS "OUR MISS BROOKS" program

By LYN WILSON—ANS Radio Editor

STAR EVE ARDEN—radio's school teacher has chalked up two of 1950's most flattering awards... voted best comedienne in the Annual National Poll conducted by Motion Picture Daily and awarded a certificate of recognition by a group of teachers for "her meritorious service to public education and thereby by American youth and the teaching profession."

JEFF CHANDLER, who plays Mr. Boynton, the object of Eve's affection on the program is, at the same time, creating quite a sensation in films. Jeff also appears regularly on two other top radio shows.

GALE GORDON, as high school principal, Mr. Conklin, began his career in films and his only vacation from the theater was during his service as chief gunner's mate in the Coast Guard during the war. He adds up 23 successful years of acting on the air.

(in inset)
GLORIA McMILLAN, radio veteran at 16, was a blues singer at the ripe age of 4 and featured regularly on a Portland, Oregon radio station. She attends "radio school" as Harriet, the principal's daughter and in real life continues her education at Westlake High School for girls in Los Angeles.

DICK CRENNAN, cast as student Walter Denton is also one in real life and attends the University of California. During high school days an important football game was interrupted by the dramatic teacher to spirit the boys across the street for a radio audition. Disgruntled and maddy, Dick went. His radio career began and has continued ever since.

Santos Capture Winter Loop Title With 10-9 Victory

Staving off a ninth inning rally, Santo Athletic Club defeated Gordon Realty, 10-9, Sunday at Big Rec to capture the Golden Gate Park Winter League Title.

Entering the top of the ninth frame Santo A. C. held a comfortable 10-6 lead, but hurler Tito Santo began to tire and allowed three Gordon tallies.

Fred Sims and Bob Dallas led the Santo A.C. hit parade with a two run homer and a double, respectively. It was Santo's 24th win of the winter league campaign against three losses.

The league title gives Santos the right to meet Fosters Lunch in a benefit for the Northern California Manager Association April 29 at Seals Stadium. The Daly City nine already defeated Fosters twice this season.

Santo A.C. also will receive the Winter League trophy now held by Gordons.

Joe Sarto's charges resume action this Sunday at Marchbanks when they tangle with La Scala Restaurant, a strong double-A club.

Gil Quinones, former Mission High star, will hurl for the Santos. Regular slaban Tito Sarto is performing for the University of San Francisco now.

Bulldog Cindermen Engage Santa Rosa

Fresh from a 88-34 rout over Stockton College, San Mateo Junior College's undefeated cindermen travel to Santa Rosa for its fourth Big Seven Conference meet Saturday.

Paced by Walt Burnett, who copped the 100-yard dash and the 880-yard event, San Mateo breezed by the Mustangs on the Burlingame High oval last Saturday.

High scorer for the Bulldogs in the meet was John Manson who captured two firsts, a second and a third for a total of 14 points. Manson won the high hurdles, and the broad jump, placed second in the low hurdles and third in high jump.

Coach Del Fishback's squad won 12 out of 14 events. They broke even on the flat, but overwhelming victories in the field events and hurdles provided the margin of victory.

Six Bulldog thinclads—Manson (14), Burnett (10), Bill Mills (10), and Joe Zanobini, Chuck Ginever, and Dave Conway, with eight points apiece—racked up 58 points, enough to overcome Stockton themselves.

ADVERTISING IS AN INVESTMENT TOWARD THE PERPETUAL GROWTH OF PROFITABLE BUSINESS

PARTNERSHIPS and EFFECTS

IN a partnership the individual status of each of the contracting parties is bound to have a tremendous effect on the other. Each one is concerned about the furtherance of the other's prosperity, and will himself profit thereby. Whatever he does in the interest of his partner will prove of benefit to him as well.

Whether individuals or organizations stand in this relation to one another, they are partners, even though there may have been no conscious recognition of the fact.

Viewed from this standpoint, the newspaper and its advertisers are partners. The more prosperous the advertiser, the greater amount of advertising he can give the newspaper. The greater the amount of advertising in the newspaper, the greater will be its news and feature sections.

The higher the advertiser stands in the estimation of the public, the more effective does his advertising become as a means of raising the standard of his advertising medium. It is assuredly to the best interests of the newspaper to do all in its power to bring success to its advertisers.

For the advertiser, the most important asset of a newspaper is a well-balanced healthy circulation and the confidence of the reading public. The most desirable partner for any advertiser is the newspaper in any given locality which possesses these assets in the most marked degree.

We believe we speak advisedly when we say we are in a position to serve your advertising needs on a maximum basis for the all important points of reader interest, circulation, general features and community prestige.

Our advertising staff is in a position to assist you with new ideas in high-level merchandising facts and figures. Also, to help you with your copy, layouts and selection of art and illustration. Naturally, there is no charge for this valuable service.

State PTA President Presents Talk To District Members At Convention

Delegates to the twenty-fourth annual convention of the Seventeenth District California Congress of Parents and Teachers heard Mrs. Edward T. Walker, state president, present "Guidelines To Maturity" for PTA. Sessions were called by Mrs. G. J. Sirex of San Carlos, district president, on Thursday, March 29, in the San Carlos Central school auditorium.

"Our measure of maturity," Mrs. Walker declared, "stresses the improved relationships we achieve between school and home, parent and teacher, local association and national organization, and probably most important the responsibility of adults for services to children. These services are shared by every community and encompass education, and family living. Added intangibles of appreciation, interest, and friendliness create more fully successful PTA groups."

Mrs. Walker was introduced by Mrs. H. P. Eder of Burlingame, convention program chairman. Entertainment featured the "Mother Singers," directed by Mrs. Granville Browning and accompanied by Mrs. Martha Smith. Members joined with the women's chorus of the San Mateo Junior College adult center, and songs were chosen from selections for the Mother Singers concert at the State convention in San Diego May 2-5-4.

D. C. Man Competes For Scholarship

Richard Lingelser, 85 Cliffside Drive, has been selected one of five young men from the San Francisco area to compete for George F. Baker scholarships to Reed College. Lingelser will go to San Francisco Saturday, March 31, for preliminary screening and interviews.

Lingelser's expenses to San Francisco will be paid. He will be interviewed by a two-man regional committee composed of George L. Buland, vice president and general counsel, Southern Pacific railroad; and Robert Erickson, personnel associate, Alameda County Civil Service Commission.

Candidates will be judged on scholastic achievement and aptitude, personality, and maturity. Reed is now considering 58 candidates from California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and Montana for Baker scholarships, which may range from $500 to $1300 per year. The six winners will be announced in late April.

The George F. Baker Scholarship Foundation is interested in developing qualities of leadership in deserving male students. Reed is one of twelve colleges and universities throughout the country chosen to participate in the scholarship program. Funds were given through the will of the late George F. Baker, Jr., chairman of the board of the First National Bank of New York.

Lingelser is a graduate of the High School of Commerce, where he was student body president, an honor student, and participated in soccer and track. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Justin R. Lingelser, of San Francisco.

The Marin Municipal Water District Reserve of 12,000 acres on the north slope of Mt. Tamalpais, in Marin County, contains three picturesque reservoir lakes.

Pastor of the Week

Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder

The Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder, Pastor of Bethel Lutheran Church is a native of San Francisco, the son of the late Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Schroeder. His father was the founder of St. John's Lutheran Church, 22nd and Capp streets.

Pastor Schroeder received his pre-theological training at California Concordia College in Oakland, and was graduated from Concordia Theological Seminary, St. Louis, Mo. in 1925. Upon his ordination, the Mission Board of the California and Nevada District of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, sent him to serve a small group worshipping in a chapel in the Excelsior District. Pastor Schroeder later organized this group into Bethel Lutheran Church. Last September the members of Bethel Church marked the 25th Anniversary of Pastor Schroeder's ministry in their midst with a Vesper Service followed by a reception.

Sermonette of the Week

KEEPING THE FOUNDATIONS OF OUR NATION

By
Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder
Pastor
BETHEL LUTHERAN CHURCH

If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do? —Psalm 11:3. The foundation of a structure is what it stands upon. The foundation of a nation is its laws and constitution—the order and power among men. The foundations are being destroyed before our eyes today. The civilization that this generation has known is passing into eclipse, and the shape of the new one has not yet emerged. The entire world is in ferment today; we are living in a changing age; there is a seething unrest among the masses. Ancient and venerable foundations are cracking and sagging before our eyes. Familiar landmarks are disappearing; buoys in the channels of history are being swept from their moorings and carried away. Not merely the maps of the world are being changed; the face of the world is being altered and the end is not yet in sight. There is the spread of godless communism, disorder, a defiance of law and authority, corruption and bribery, shameless immorality, and wickedness in high places.

Our nation, blessed by God spiritually and materially, has its foundations threatened as well. We are so close to present day events that the average man or woman has little understanding of the events happening before our eyes. If you destroy the foundation of religion and persuade people that religion is a cheat and of no value, then you make them most miserable. When you try to overthrow the Ruler of nations, you invite destruction.

If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

What can Christians do?

If they have faith in God and are zealous for the Kingdom of Christ, they may take heart because they will see that the period in which we now live is similar to the day in which Jesus Christ, the Son of God, came with his Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

In the years preceding the down-fall of the Roman Empire, there was the same seething unrest. It was a despairing world into which Jesus came, 2000 years ago. "It had rotted down its ideals through luxury and self-indulgence, arrogance and avarice. Doubts, skepticism and despair were on every hand. It was a world of shame and decay, sensuality and senile despair." Into this world so dark and hopeless came Christ with His Gospel of love and redemption. From the hour that He hung upon the cross, where He suffered, shed His blood and died for the sins of all men, and rose triumphant from the dead, with the message of peace and pardon, hope was born in human hearts.

The Apostles of Christ went forth into every part of the Roman Empire with the good news of God's Kingdom, calling all men to repent of their sins, to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and to enter the Kingdom of God.

The Christian Gospel still presents Jesus Christ as the hope of the world today. With extended arms He calls to the children of men—"Come unto Me, all ye that are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest." The only enduring foundation for a temple of peace is Jesus Christ, whose followers not only profess His name, but also live His Gospel in daily life.

It is a painful business to live through this period of stress and change, but the foundations of God's Kingdom are not shaken. His purposes cannot be frustrated or defeated. In the midst of the present turmoil, the Christian may well look up and lift up his head, knowing that his redemption draweth nigh.

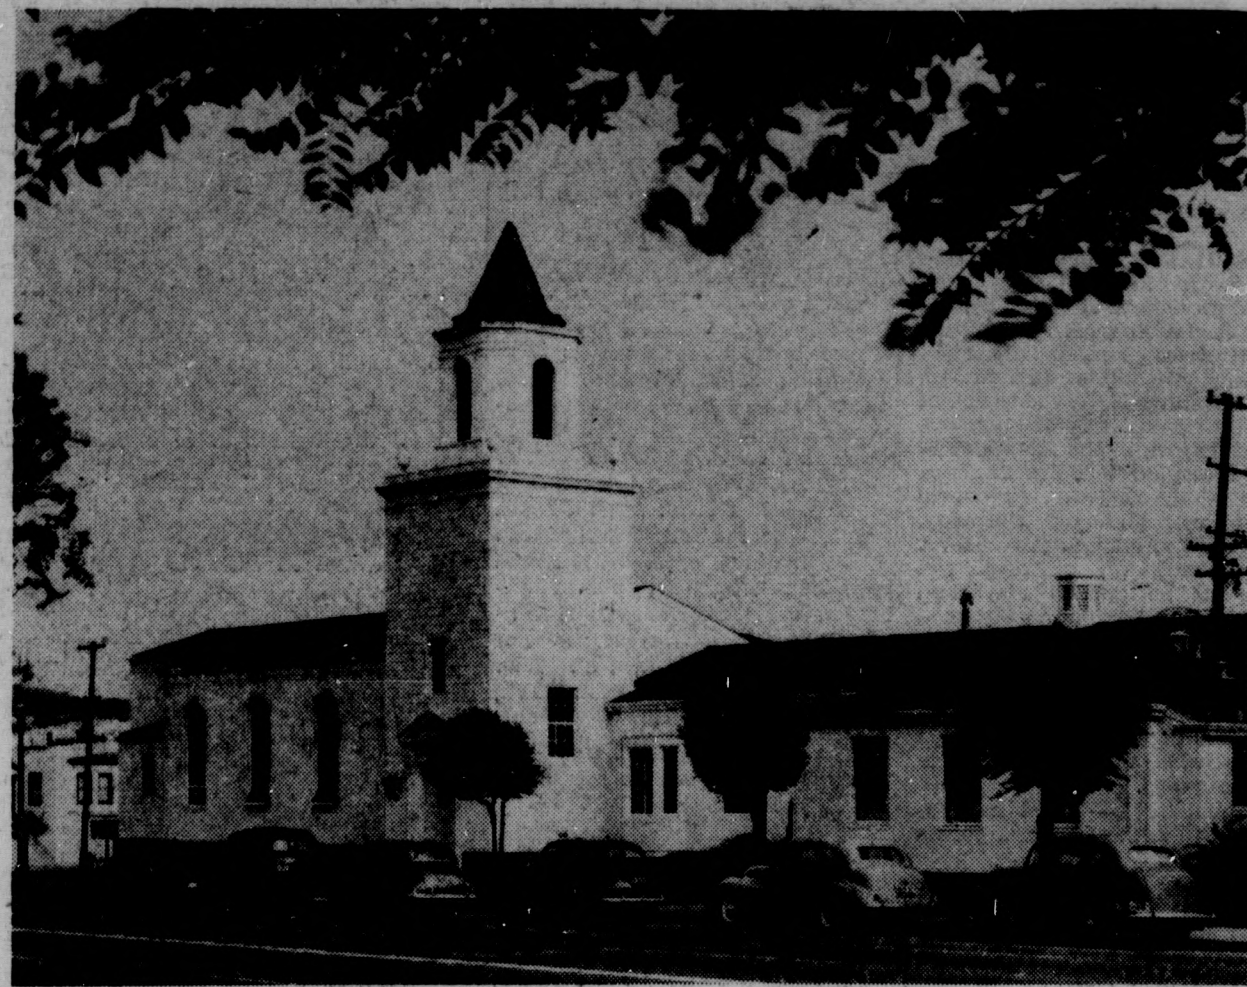

What can a Christian do in such a time as this?

He can pledge himself with renewed loyalty to the church of Jesus Christ as it witnesses to His Gospel in this and other lands.

There is nothing hesitant or apologetic about the crusade of communists in our high schools and colleges and among all classes of men. We say without any apology that Christ gives us a better answer to our needs. The early Christians were ready to die for their faith—we must be ready to live for ours. This requires even more than attendance at Church one day a week; it must enter into every part of our life. We must outlive and outthink those who would destroy our heritage. We are to be fearless witnesses for Christ, lifting high His cross, and He will draw all men unto Him.

"Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord." —Psalm 33, 12.

Church of the Week

Bethel Lutheran Church

Bethel Lutheran Church was established in the Excelsior District of San Francisco in 1925. To meet the demands of the growing congregation, and in order to serve the expanding Outer Mission area together with Daly City and Colma, lots were purchased on Alameda Blvd. and Huron Ave. in 1936. The first unit of the building program, the Parish House, was dedicated in 1940. The parsonage was built in 1941. Due to the war, the construction of the church edifice was delayed, and it was dedicated in 1948. The property of Bethel Church is valued at $150,000.00.

Bethel Congregation has as its governing body the Church Council together with the Assembly of Voters. Mr. A. C. Bredehoft is the Chairman for 1951.

Bethel Sunday School maintains a trained teaching staff including secretaries and clerks. A Bible Class for Adults is held during the Sunday School hour.

Mrs. Ruth Petersen is the organist and choir director, with Miss Patricia Austrung assisting with the Junior Choir.

Various organizations within the church, meeting during the day and at night, give opportunity to young people and old to be active in the work of the Church.

This community religious appeal is being made jointly by our churches and the following public-spirited business and professional men and women

Ordinance No. 323

OF INTENTION TO MAKE ACQUISITIONS
PROJECT NO. 311
SOUTH MAYFAIR AND
SOUTHGATE AVENUES

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF DALY CITY DOES OR-
DAIN, as follows:

1. That the public interest and convenience require and that it is the intention of this Council to order the acquisition of the herein-after described easements for the opening and extension of Southgate Avenue and South Mayfair Avenue between their two ends on either side of the Ocean Shore Railroad right of way, together with the acquisition of an easement along the northerly side of South Mayfair Avenue between said two points for the extension of the planting strip on either side of said right of way, to-wit:

Parcel 1. That portion of the Ocean Shore Railroad Company right of way, between the south-easterly line of Alameda Boulevard (State Highway Route 56) and the southeasterly line of South Mayfair Avenue extended across said right of way.

Parcel 2. That portion of the Ocean Shore Railroad Company right of way, between the northerly and southerly lines of Southgate Avenue extended across said right of way.

Parcel 3. That parcel of land lying radially 70 feet southwesterly from the southwesterly line of the Ocean Shore Railroad Company right of way, between the south-easterly line of Alameda Boulevard (State Highway Route 56) and the southeasterly line of South Mayfair Avenue.

Parcel 4. That parcel of land lying radially 70 feet northwesterly from the northerly line of the Ocean Shore Railroad Company right of way, between the south-easterly line of Alameda Boulevard (State Highway Route 56) and the southeasterly line of South Mayfair Avenue.

Parcel 5. That parcel of land lying 70 feet radially southwesterly from the southwesterly line of the Ocean Shore Railroad Company right of way, between the northerly and southerly lines of Southgate Avenue.

Parcel 6. That parcel of land lying 70 feet radially or at right angles northeasterly from the north-easterly line of the Ocean Shore Railroad Company right of way, between the northerly and southerly lines of Southgate Avenue.

2. The said easements are to be acquired for the purpose of grading and constructing water bound base pavement with armor coat wearing surface approximately 24 feet in width with 4-foot shoulders on either side, together with the extension of sanitary sewers, storm drains, water mains, utilities and reinforced concrete retaining wall along the northerly line of said planting strip across said railroad right of way.

3. Said parcels so to be acquired are more particularly shown upon a map thereof entitled "Map of Easements to be Acquired and Diagram of Assessment District under Ordinance No. 323 for the Opening of Southgate Avenue and South Mayfair Avenue, and the Planting Strip Adjacent to South Mayfair Avenue, City of Daly City, March 1951, R. A. Klassen, City Engineer."

4. Said improvements are to be constructed in conformity with a plan thereof entitled "Plans for the Improvement of Easements for the Opening of Southgate Avenue and South Mayfair Avenue and the Planting Strip Adjacent to South Mayfair Avenue, City of Daly City, March 1951, R. ANGLING ANGLES

by old Hi

Boys, mighty soon now we'll be steppin' quietly along the stream banks, a-swingin' our lures to the lures of fall-slashing speckled trout. How hard one of those giant brook, brown, rainbow, or cutthroat fin-powered rascals will tug, and race, and fight! What a battle he'll wage on a light bamboo or glass rod!

Yes, fellows, that's just what we need for this season—a new bait and fly rod with suitable reel and line to match the husky fish of broiling streams. What say we drop into the local sporting goods store today and check up on our needs, and look over the new tackle on display?

There's an ideal "sportsman's rod" that comes in six lengths, made from flame finish tonkin bamboo. It's just right for bait or fly fishing in medium-wide, bushy streams. The sections are 17 inches in length, so the rod will fit in any pack basket, or can be carried in the pocket of a fishing jacket.

Then we find an all-purpose combination Black River rod of four pieces that sure fills the bill for all kinds of fishing. You can fit it together so that it makes two fly rods 8½ feet long and 6½ feet long, one bait rod 8½ feet in length, light casting rod 6½ feet long, or two casting or trolling rods 5½ and 3 feet in length. Those who fish in the South will find this rod excellent for taking bass and panfish of all kinds. It's strong, limber, light... and ready to handle any situation.

This spring you'll see Old Hi whipping the waters with one of the newly developed tubular glass fly rods. They're honeyed! And the toughest rods, under ordinary usage, you've ever tested on a bucking trout, salmon, or bass. I'll use a two-piece silver lake wet fly action tubular glass fly rod 8½ feet long that weighs about 6 ounces.

I've also got my eye on a two-piece goldenrod tubular glass spinning rod 7 feet long. Old Hi plans to try some of the large, deep pools that are hard to reach with regular fly tackle under bushy conditions—and there's where the lunkers hide! Spinning will fetch 'em out. Better get yourself one of these new glass spinning rods... and have more fun with the huge trout.

For the bait rod you'll want a top flight level-wind casting reel of 100 yard line capacity, and a spool of hi-test braided silk line of 9 or 12 pound test. For the fly rod get an automatic reel holding 50 yards of fly dyle size H or G level nylon fly line. And to the glass spinning rod attach a Brado-co spinning reel of large capacity, to hold 100 yards of 6 or 8 pound test skir hard braided nylon spinning line.

By sending a penny postcard to Old Hi, in care of this newspaper, and asking for your free copies of the book "Fishing For The Millions," "Salt Water Sports Fishing," or "Pacific Coastal Fishing," you'll read how to use this tackle to the best advantage.

vided by Division 10 of the Streets and Highways Code, the Improvement Bond Act of 1915, and the last installment of such bonds shall mature nine (9) years from the second day of July next succeeding ten months from their date.

11. Except as otherwise hereinabove provided for, the issuance of said bonds, all of said acquisition proceedings shall be had pursuant to Part 1, Division 6 of the Streets and Highways Code, the Street Opening Act of 1903.

12. Reference is hereby made to proceedings had pursuant to Division 5 of the Streets and Highways Code, the Special Assessment Investigation, Limitation and Majority Protest Act of 1931.

13. Notice is hereby given that Monday, the 23rd day of April, 1951, at the hour of eight o'clock P.M. in the Council Chambers, City Hall, Daly City, California, are hereby fixed as the time and place when and where any person having any objection to the proposed acquisitions and improvements map appear before the legislative body and show cause why the proposed acquisitions and improvements should not be carried out in accordance with this Ordinance of Intention.

14. Notices entitled "Notice of Improvement" shall be posted on all open streets within the assessment district in the form, time and manner provided by law.

15. Notices of the adoption of this Ordinance shall be mailed to all property owners within the assessment district in the form, time and manner provided by law.

16. This Ordinance shall become effective upon the date of its adoption and a copy thereof shall be published twice in the Daly City Record, the first of which publications shall not be less than ten days before the time here-in fixed for said hearing.

ATOMIC BOMB LIFE SAVERS

How do we detect radioactivity? You can't hear, see, feel, smell or taste radioactivity but its presence can be definitely detected with Geiger counters and other instruments.

You do not have to know how to use these instruments. Local radiological defense teams—a trained corps of "meter readers"—warn you of lingering radioactivity.

These teams will advise firefighters and rescue crews and others who may have to enter contaminated areas.

Remember, whenever you think of radioactivity think of the comparison to sunlight, which in moderate amounts does not burn at all, and the fact that detectable radioactivity does not necessarily mean dangerous radioactivity.

You can do a great deal to protect yourself from exposure to radioactivity.

Schools To Charge For Facilities

APRIL 5. (CNS)—School boards would be allowed to charge for the use of facilities to cover added expense under an assembly bill passed this week and sent to the senate.

Under the present law, boards must furnish such facilities free, but under the new legislation the boards may assess such charges as they deem advisable when meetings or entertainment are held on school property.

Assemblyman Francis Dunn, Jr., Alameda county, who spoke in support of the bill, said that school costs have risen at a terrific rate and boards, in being allowed to charge rentals, will be aided in keeping within budgets by the measure.

GLAMOROUS JOAN CRAWFORD makes her contribution to the Easter Seal fund raising drive for crippled children. The campaign in the county has been extended for the next two weeks due to the fact that only 30 per cent of the 1951 quota of $45,000 has been raised to date. Unless more contributions for Easter Seals are forthcoming from county residents the program of assistance to crippled children in the county will be seriously curtailed. Contributions can be mailed to Crippled Children's Society, 1204 Burlingame Ave., Burlingame, Calif.

Pack 63 Awards 26 Medals At Meeting

Pack 63 of the cub-scouts held one of its most successful meetings Friday night when 26 awards were given. About 70 people attended one monthly meeting.

Receiving Bobcat Pins were Roy Cavalini, John Vinal, Jim Keefer, Ronnie Brugioni, and James Garrison.

Awarded Wolf Badges were Mickey Kordoules, Roy Cavalini, John Vinal, and Ronnie Brugioni.

Bear Badges were given to Stephen Hansen, Lynn Atteberry, Michael Linton, John Tarranto, Jim Freeman, and Maurice Bradshaw.

Ronnie Brugioni received a Lion Badge, while Don Cubic was awarded the Silver Arrow.

Gold Arrows were given to John Vinal, Don Cubic, Maurice Bradshaw, Michael Linton, and John Tarranto.

Four den mothers—Mrs. Al Lyon, Mrs. Michael Cubic, Mrs. V. McClintock, and Mrs. Charles Hansen—were awarded Den Mother Pins.

Al Lyon, pack committee chairman, introduced Phil Schwartz, Boy Scouts county representative of the Lake Merced area, at the meeting. Mrs. Cubic's Den 2 gave a first aid demonstration and sang two songs. The work of two dens, Dens 1 and 2, were displayed. Den 1 exhibited styrofoam Easter rabbits, and Den 2 displayed stencil work and wooden napkin holders.

The crowd thoroughly enjoyed a performance given by Satane the Magician, Elmer Schmit of San Francisco. Schmit, a professional magician, kept his audience spellbound with his clever performance. Pack 63 extends its thanks to Satane the Magician for his excellent show.

A new den mother has been added to Pack 63. She is Mrs. Joe Bradshaw who will take over Den 5.

In the Cub Fair at the San Francisco Armory Saturday night, Pack 63's booth was a success as was the entire fair. A crowd of two and three deep milled around the booth the entire evening.

Mrs. Lyon, on behalf of Pack 63, wishes to thank the Daly City Fire Department and Chief Elmer Kennedy for their cooperation in the event.

Special thanks goes to Henry Weisner, ex-scout master of Troop 106, who was in uniform at the booth with a panel he made showing what happens in the fire house when the alarm rings.

Very few visitors passed the opportunity to ring the alarm that was on display at the booth. Pack 63's booth was by far the noisiest at the fair.

PTA Presents Agenda At Burlingame High

An agenda of interest to all PTA executives in San Mateo county has been announced by Mrs. G. J. Sirex of San Carlos, president of Seventeenth District Council, Congress of Parents and Teachers, for Monday morning, April 9, at 9:30 o'clock in the Little Theatre of Burlingame High school.

Items to be discussed include material for the annual "School of Information" on May 17, questions from the March sectional meetings, departmental procedure, and State convention plans for May 2-3-4 in San Diego.

Local associations should be represented by both outgoing and incoming presidents, for decisions made at this executive session will vitally effect the program for 1951-1952. District officers and chairmen are expected to attend as usual, and copies of April "Seventeen," the District newsletter, will be distributed to those present.

Assembled Passes Bill On Income Tax Structure

APRIL 5. (CNS)—A bill which may have far-reaching effects on California's personal income tax structure was on its way to the assembly this week after passage by the state senate.

The measure, SB-176, by Senator Clarence Ward of Santa Barbara, removes from the income tax law the presumption that an individual who maintains a permanent place of abode within the state of California is a resident of the state.

It does, however, leave in the provision that every individual who spends more than nine months of the year in California is presumed to be a resident of California, and therefore, subject to the personal income tax and other tax laws.

Confronted with the possibility that under his bill, many wealthy persons could maintain permanent homes in California, spend the winter in Florida or Hawaii, and thus escape income taxes, Ward declared that "just the opposite will result."

The measure, he said, was promoted by real estate interests, who at the present time have trouble selling residences to wealthy people who wish to maintain a California home.

"Their attorneys," said Ward, "advise them not to buy homes in California because of this presumption in the law."

"As a result, this state is deprived of many wealthy visitors, who eventually would become residents on a full-time basis, if they could purchase homes here for use part of the year and maintain their residence in another state."

MATEANS ASSIST GREEK STUDENTS

Cooperating in aiding European recovery, San Mateo Junior College students are assisting the students at the University of Salonika in Greece by sending textbooks, clothing and money to that school.

The annual drive of the World Student Service Fund starts next week, and students at the jaycee have made plans for an extensive campaign to bring in the money and desired articles. Since the war ended, European students have had a hard time carrying on school work under adverse conditions, and students in other lands have rallied to their aid.

While studies and such other serious matters as drives to help the armed forces and the Red Cross have kept the jaysee busy, the students have been planning a real barn dance for this Saturday evening in the Austin barn in Palo Alto. Frank Bazley's five piece orchestra will play from nine to twelve o'clock. Farm attire is suggested for the dancers. The Associated Women Students and the Associated Men Students are sponsors of the dance.

San Mateo JC track men swamped Stockton college recently on the Burlingame field and track, but the baseball team lost two conference games to Modesto. This Saturday the Mateans nine will play Stockton at San Mateo.

Faculty members attended the Spring meeting of the Northern California Junior College Association at Menlo College last Saturday. Miss Martha Burrill, San Mateo registrar, is president of the organization. President Charles S. Morris was one of the speakers and several other San Mateo instructors acted as chairman of group meetings.

Sidewalk flower stands have brightened San Francisco's streets since the 1880s.

KATHLEEN NORRIS Marrying Harriet

"WE ARE THE MOST unmarried family you ever heard of," writes 19-year-old Harriet Sloper, from a Cleveland suburb. "Mother has been a widow since I was four and my sister Elena 10 years old. We have two half-sisters, teachers and part founders of a girls' school. Mother's sister, unmarried, lives with us. We all talk marriage and beans and romantic affairs—mostly imaginary—all the time, and we're all unmarried."

"We have a big house and plenty of money; Mother has a car. Elena drives to and fro in her own car to a good job in Cleveland; I have a small car, attend college, but live at home. My half-sisters live at home."

"It is the fashion in this family," this unusually frank letter goes on, "to talk as if men were rather inferior beings, and as if we all had refused several good chances to marry. Lillian and Frances, my half-sisters, like to imply that they wouldn't marry the smartest man who ever lived. But this is not so. They are 34 and 37 now, and it is my honest conviction that neither one has ever had a real offer. Lil talks of some captain she met at the canteen in the last war, and Fran has snapshots of herself taken with several men when she was in college; that's all. Elena is delicate, reserved, bookish, fastidious. They all like her at the office, and the other girls call her of their affairs, but nobody calls on her."

"... I envied her ..."

Wants To Marry

"Now, my problem is," Harriet goes on, "that I want to marry, and marry young, because that seems the safest way. My chum, 20 years old, eloped with a married man last Christmas, and they had an awful time getting his marriage annulled and everybody cried and talked to lawyers and was horribly shocked. I wasn't shocked; I envied her. I'm not unusually pretty, but I have a good figure, swim, play tennis, love hikes and camping—and I'm friendly. I've won prizes dancing, and I was president of the class in my last year high, and voted the best all-around citizen in the whole school."

"So why don't men come to see me? And why doesn't one of them, after we've had an afternoon of tennis, and a hot weather supper with my aspic and my strawberry ice cream, reach over and squeeze my hand when we're sitting out on the steps? What haven't I got? I want a home, I want children and a kitchen and a lawn to rake and a man to meet when the afternoon train comes in. Is that so unreasonable?"

"I don't want to dry up and wither on the family stem; I want life!" Harriet's letter finishes. "Mother can't help me, she talks as if marriage was one long trial for a woman. Certainly my sisters and my aunt are no help; they are really a hindrance, watching and interested and all, but asking any man who ventures into our house what his intentions are. There must be men as anxious to find a good mate as I am. I forgot to say that I am studying to be a public librarian, and hope to have a job in about 14 months."

Sit Tight

That's the letter, and in answer I wrote Harriet that I would advise her to sit tight for those 14 months. I would advise her to give up the job of hunting for a sweetheart in these discouraging circumstances, but devote herself to her work, and to the family.

Then, when she graduates, let her go to the head of the library board and explain that she wants to go away. It will be a very simple matter for her to carry her new credentials to some other city, and the family, though perhaps shocked, cannot find that course anything but natural and understandable. Once away from home Harriet will make new contacts, meet all sorts of new people, spread her wings. Before she knows it she will be taking an acceptable man home for the family's approval.

That is, if nothing happens in the meantime. But something romantic is extremely likely to happen in the meantime. Just her plan to go away will make her more interesting, and her enthusiasm over the complete change, with all it involves in clothes and luggage and books to read and a new fountain pen, will take her attention off the young man to whom she is talking, and make him a little anxious to get it back again.

Over and over again in this life, when we pull ourselves out of a rut and make one plan, another unexpected plan shoots across it.

VILLAGE NOTES BROADMOOR, GARDEN VILLAGE, COLMA by Mrs. Mark Swoverland PLaza 5-4158

Hi there! New babies visitors, parties, plenty in my little notebook this week so let's get on with it.

LARCHMONT

Congratulations to Rev. and Mrs. John Glasse who became grandparents for the first time when their son Rev. James Daniel Glasse and his wife became parents of a baby boy, James Daniel, born March 29 and weighing 7 lbs. 9 ounces.

Mr. Henry High of the Merchant Marine came home last week to visit Mrs. High and the children, Beverly, Roger, and Douglas. Needless to say the family was very happy.

Miss LaDay Elledge spent the weekend at Donner Summit skiing. No bones broken.

87th

Speaking of broken bones, Jimmy Swoverland is laid up with a broken leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hager and daughter Sandy spent Sunday at Santa Rosa.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Craig spent the weekend fishing—caught some fish, too!

WILDWOOD

The Neighborhood canasta party was held at the home of Fleta Lagoria. Attending were Mrs. Jean Proctor, Marion Polites, Irene Parks, Pearl Harris, Mary Conteras and Betty Hart.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bento and their new baby boy born Thursday morning. More details later.

SWEETWOOD

Little Roger Evlen is ill with the measles.

FOOTHILL

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Easterbrook Sr. of Teaneck, New Jersey, arrived Monday night by plane to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Easterbrook Jr.

GARDEN VILLAGE

Mayor and Mrs. Lewis Heim have transferred to Camp Stoneman. Mrs. Heim is in the Camp Stoneman Hospital quite ill.

Ricky Gomez is in bed with the measles.

Here's a tip—the same night that the Edgetts were burglarized, the only other house in that area that was dark, the Klaisners, had a strange call from some strangers. They rang the doorbell and asked about some strange name who supposedly lived next door.

MUTUAL ADMIRATION, is the feeling between NBC-TV Tuesday evening "Fireside Theater" and famous film actress Gertrude Michael who is often seen in their dramatic productions. Miss Michael began her career in little theater, stepped onto the Broadway stage, into films and on to radio and TV. "Fireside Theater," says she, "is the happiest medium I've found."

TV pet

She loves to play a variety of parts—a shrew one time, a heroic mother, an ambitious career woman or a hypochondriac spinster the next—a pleasure which is seldom possible in films. "Fireside Theater," gives Miss Michael its nod of approval by casting her time after time throughout the year.

DISC CHATTER: Here's an

MGM record, "Aba Daba Honey-moon" featuring Carleton Carpenter and Debbie Reynolds, which is rapidly becoming a national hit. The disc is recorded direct from the sound track of the MGM film "Two Weeks With Love."

RUMORS ARE AROUND that radio's news headlines, Lowell Thomas, heard on CBS weeknights, is heading for another of his trips, this year, to some remote land. Thomas has the wander-lust in his soul and with few apparent plans, is away to far-off places, then back to relate his experiences so vividly to his radio audience that they feel they are really there. Last stop, Tibet, was taken with son, Lowell Thomas Jr. who wrote his first book "Out of This World" about the experience. Son Lowell, now just 27, is following in his father's footsteps. He is already a traveler-lecturer-author.

REDBUDS IN BLOOM

Redbuds are in bloom in Lake County area this week, reports the National Automobile Club. Motorists can see this colorful display from many places on local highways.

Salinas was incorporated in 1872 with a population of 700.

MORE LARCHMONT

Mrs. Harry Davis and son, Gail, of South San Francisco spent last Monday with Mrs. Phil Messier. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Walker left our fair community to move to San Francisco.

Welcome to newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Callahan and son.

Will Den 16 Fold? Cub Mothers Must Answer Question

by Mrs. E. K. Whinnen

Mothers of Cubs in Den 16, do you want to see Den 16 fold up after the spring graduation of the old Cubs?

Have you thought what is going to happen when Jerry Rosenberg is graduated and the Ronsenbergs have moved out of the neighborhood, which they are going to do? Or do you care? Is Den 16 just a handy place for your son to go for a couple of hours each week, or do you want him to have the advantages of cubbing? Here is what is going to happen to Den 16 after the June graduation if one or two of you mothers don't come forward to take over the den after June.

There simply isn't going to be any Den 16. Mrs. Rosenberg is moving to Westlake and my son was graduated before Christmas this year. Neither one of us will be carrying on with Den 16. It will simply be de-activated, and your boys will have had to drop a beneficial activity in their lives, and at the same time have the frustrated feeling of having started something and not been able to finish it because their mothers simply didn't care.

Some of you mothers are working, no doubt. But certainly there are some among the 12 or 13 mothers represented who could take over the den and carry on. Sure it is sometimes exasperating. But it is pretty nice too, when you meet your Cub on the street and they say, "Hello, Mrs. ——" with that special respect and warmth generated by working together to attain a worthwhile end.

And it is fun, too. You really have to get into it to know. You may think it is terribly boring and nerve wracking, but there is a lot of fun and enthusiasm in it, if you let yourself see it that way. You can't possibly know anything about it till you've tried it. Why don't you come down to a den meeting or two and see for yourself?

Out at the last Pack meeting there was a magician on the program of entertainment, and what do you think he did? Why he forgot the keys to his bag of tricks and couldn't put on his act. Can't you imagine the razzing he took from those kids?

Pack 36 carried the ball at the recent Lake Merced District Round Table. Den Mother Irene Rosenberg was the principal speaker of the evening and acquitted herself with ability. After the talk on crafts and places to go, Mrs. Rosenberg answered questions from the floor. Most of the questions came from interested Cubs and Den Mother Irene Rosenberg found herself right at home in this field—after all, doesn't she answer about a thousand every Thursday afternoon?

George Balki Weds Beverly Nagel At OLPH Church

Residing in Redwood City today are Mr. and Mrs. George Balki, who were married at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church February 4.

The former Miss Beverly Nagel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nagel, 54 Peoria Street. She graduated from Our Lady of Perpetual Help School and attended Jefferson High School.

George Balki is a native of Colma, and attended Daly City schools. He is a plumber by trade. The couple were wed in a simple ceremony. Miss Nagel's sister, Laverne Nagel, acted as matron-of-honor.

REDBUDS IN BLOOM
Redbuds are in bloom in Lake County area this week, reports the National Automobile Club. Motorists can see this colorful display from many places on local highways.

ROSE SOCIETY TO HOLD SHOW

The fifth annual rose show of the San Mateo County Rose Society, Inc., will be held this year on Sunday, May 6th, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. at "Roseacre," the Merrill A. Newman estate at 863 Chiltern Road, Hillsborough.

"Roseacre" is just what its name implies, an acre of prize roses, over 2500 bushes of 200 varieties, comprising the "who's who" of roseland. It has been called the finest private rose garden on the Pacific Coast.

Harry Gundersen, of Redwood City, Spring Show Chairman, announces that prize blooms will be entered by members of the county-wide rose society. The society, affiliated with the American Rose Society and the National Rose Society of England, is open to anyone who wishes to join.

Garden clubs and florists of San Mateo County will enter arrangements of roses which will be judged by a popular vote.

A silver cup will be presented to the winner in each class. Exhibits, arranged in the manner of an English garden show, will cover more than a quarter of a mile.

Mrs. Florence Cornell, President of the Rose Society, promises a beautiful tea, served in the patio of "Roseacre." Tea is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Fred Hickman.

Tickets for the show may be purchased from members of the rose society or at the gate of "Roseacre."

Since the show is expected to draw visitors from all over the Bay Area, roads leading to "Roseacre" will be well marked the day of the show.

Eagles' President Addresses Aeries

William B. Hornblower, Grand Worthy President of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will address members of San Mateo Aerie and visitors from 16 Aeries in the Bay Area, on Tuesday evening, April 10.

Hornblower will speak on fraternity objectives, including the war preparedness measures taken by the Eagles. Other subjects to be discussed include Eagle programs in the fields of youth guidance, child health, and aid for the handicapped.

Hornblower, a former member of the California legislature, is an attorney. He has been prominent in Eagle councils, having served as Grand Worthy Vice President, as president of the California State Aerie, and as head of the Eagles National Old Age and Social Security Commission. He is a resident of San Mateo.

The "Business Men of San Mateo" are making elaborate preparations for the meeting, and will cook and serve the banquet to those attending. The members are bringing their friends to be initiated. A huge class is planned for the initiation in honor of the "National President" and the "Business Men."

CLOSE TO DANGER

Even when you are close to home you are still close to danger, warns the National Automobile Club. Before turning into that driveway take a good look about you and make the proper arm signals in a clear and unmistakable way.

BAYSHORE VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUNiper 4-6449

We have two new Fire Commissioners in Bayshore as of last Monday. The men that went into office are F. J. Barbara, and H. E. Haines. For the benefit of those interested, here is the ballot count. F. J. Barbara, 222 votes. H. E. Haines, 212 votes. L. Parker, 105 votes. J. P. Lawson 99 votes. H. Salsbery, 13 votes. H. Salsbery was a write-in on the ballot for the short term office.

With the Fire Commission election behind us, we see another election looming before us in just a few short weeks. The Water Board has an election coming up on May 1. One man must be elected for a three year term. Two men have filed for the position. They are Vince Morris, incumbent, and Jimmie Mills. Vince is the Morris of Morris Realty, on Geneva Ave. close to Bayshore. Jimmie Mills is a plumber and long time resident of Bayshore.

Complaint Dept: Some of the taverns in Bayshore want to know why we can't get all these elections over with at once. They must close their doors as follows: Primary elections, general elections, water board elections, fire board elections, school board elections, and sanitary elections.

Good Reasons

There are two very good reasons why the elections cannot be held at the same time. First, each of our elections come under different state law classifications. The law tells us what day of what particular month each election must be held in all districts of the state. Then too, the elections are handled differently, and one election board could not handle the balloting for all of them under one roof.

Setting aside all the reasons why the state governs our days of election, I feel that any business people in a district that complain about the number of elections held are being very unfair. If we were to hold all our elections at one time, the political minded residents of our districts would only have a few days out of every year to enjoy themselves. There would be practically nothing to do for ten months out of the year. No scandals, no back-biting, and no dirty wash to air. It can all be done now in the name of clean government for the people.

Benefit Dance

The Cancer Benefit dance for teen-agers came off last Saturday night as scheduled. The crowd

Jefferson PTA Installs New Officers April 12

The Jefferson Union High School PTA will hold its installation of officers at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, April 12.

District President Mrs. G. J. Siereux will install Mrs. Byron Jensen as the Jefferson PTA president.

The Home Economics Department students will serve tea to the mothers.

Mrs. Jensen, Mrs. Jennie Diamond, Mrs. Grace Hill were delegates to the annual convention of the 17th district held in San Carlos last week.

SOCIETY

Local Auxiliary Aids The Needy

"A friend in need is a friend indeed," and the Daly City American Legion Auxiliary, Post 410, certainly has been that friend.

To name the services performed by the auxiliary in the past six months would be difficult. The highlights of the auxiliary's work however, are helping to make bed jackets and lap robes for the veterans at the Palo Alto Veterans' Hospital and donating money to help pay a hospital bill for operation to restore sight to a blind woman.

Another donation was given to help purchase transformation for a young woman who lost her hair from brain operations; forty little patients were made happy with the Christmas stockings that were sent to them; donations of clothing were sent over seas.

The only compensation these women receive for their time and effort is the satisfaction of knowing that they have helped where help was needed. They will continue their work whether it be for veteran, member, or community.

Broadmoor Girl Scouts Celebrate 2nd Birthday

After their regular meeting Monday the Girl Scouts of Broadmoor, Troop 19, celebrated their second birthday as an intermediate troop.

According to troop custom each girl was presented with her yearly membership card and an unlighted candle which she placed in a beautifully decorated birthday cake. Honors of the day went to the girls who had been associated with scouting for the longest period. Geraldine Bertetta hung the troop certificate for the ensuing year on the wall. Robin Hatfield and La Verne Nannini lit the candles on the cake, after which they all joined hands and made a wish for the troop. Carol and Linda Bloom blew out the candles, and all the girls and "Happy Birthday" while Edith Detweiler and Nancy Hopper cut the cake.

PFC. ERWIN WILSON HOME ON LEAVE

Marine Pfc. Robert E. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Wilson, 317 Winchester, is home on leave today.

He will be here until early next week when he will report to a Marine camp at North Carolina for further training.

Pfc. Wilson has been a Marine for the past three months. He took his basic training in San Diego.

They were lucky at that to get hold of Carl. All the time that Uncle Sam doesn't take, Carl spends at the new restaurant that his brother just opened, next door to the Paradise Club, at 3391 Mission. The fellows swing a mean piece of fried chicken.

Whist Party

On Thursday, April 12, the Mothers Club of Visitacion Valley Church at 301 Raymond Ave., will hold a whist party. Whist, cake and coffee, all for 50c. Mrs. Courtner is the chairman of the whist, and the time is 8 p.m. People from Bayshore that like a game of whist are urged to come over and get acquainted.

The Bayshore PTA will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday, April 13. The new officers will take office at this meeting, and all members are urged to attend and meet their office holders. Refreshments will be served.

The Bayshore PTA Bazaar, held last Wednesday, was an unqualified success. Many of the school children bought their lunch, which consisted of a hot dog, a cupcake, and coc. All manner of things were sold, and the ladies went home tired but triumphant.

Question with no answer Dept: What well known figure hereabouts displayed his shooting iron at one of the local bistros the other P.M. swearing that the gun wasn't loaded? The hole in the wall of the tavern will make a liar out of the lad, and there are still one or two figures walking around Bayshore that will leap a minimum of twelve inches off the ground every time someone pops their gum. Just a touch of nerves buddy, nothin' that checking your guns at the door won't cure.

PART OF WISDOM

Consideration of the other driver is not always a matter of altruism, points out the National Automobile Club. More often it is a question of one's own interests. Thus the man who tries to leave ample space for another car when he has parked isn't an easy mark who is too considerate of others but a wise driver who knows what a mess many drivers make of parking and how often they damage fenders of cars that are too near the battleground.

The Sydney (Australia) Harbor Bridge is 440 feet high.

Crocker Installs New PTA Officers

The Crocker school library will be the scene of the installation of new officers for the Crocker Parent Teacher Association. The affair will start at 8:00 o'clock, April 10, 1951. Mrs. T. M. Mullen will be installed as president and leader of the group, and with her a new staff of officers will take over duties for the forthcoming year.

The new officers are: Mrs. A. Vranich, vice president; Miss M. Tobias, honorary vice president; Mrs. A. D. Lauffenberger, recording secretary; Mrs. N. Daniels, corresponding secretary; Mrs. H. Holcomb, financial secretary; Mrs. A. D'Ispe, auditor; Mrs. James Jordan Sr., historian; Mrs. F. Wittig, treasurer; Mrs. James Jordan Jr., parliamentary.

The evening affair will combine the introduction of the new officers of the association with a reception for the teachers of the Crocker school. Mrs. Carl Berg, president of the Crocker Parent Teacher Association, cordially invites all members and their friends to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Reception

Receiving guests and welcoming them to the new Colma school, were the Crocker Parent Teacher Association and the Jefferson elementary Parent Teacher Association. Mrs. T. M. Mullen, president elect of the Crocker group, and Mrs. Weisner, newly elected president of the Jefferson group, served punch and cookies to the many friends of the school that were present at the dedication of the district's newest elementary school.

Several hundred guests arrived at the dedication, and witnessed the flag raising ceremonies and listened with interest at addresses made by County Supt. J. E. Torrey and San Mateo Trustees Association president, Mrs. Stella Jensen. After the ceremonies, the new building was inspected. Mrs. Carl Berg, Crocker president, noted that the potted plants that enhanced the loveliness of the new rooms were gifts to the school from her association. Also the Crocker and Colma schools were recipients of new radios purchased from the Hopman Electric Co.

OLPH Mothers' Club Meets

The Mothers' Club of O.L.P.H. School will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday evening, April 13, at 8:15 in the school auditorium. The business meeting will be followed by a social.

Refreshments will be served, with Mrs. Valetta Ennis acting as hostess.

At this time the nominating committee, Mrs. Janet Fellman, chairman, will make its recommendations.

Members are urged to attend this meeting if possible because reservations for the big "April in Paris" Luncheon will be taken, thus giving the regular members a chance to make the first reservations before tickets are placed on sale. After the Friday meeting, reservations can be made by telephoning Mrs. Catherine Ricci, JU. 7-5735. Tickets and space are limited.

"April in Paris" was selected as the theme of the luncheon and entertainment, partly because it is spring and spring spells fashions and fashions automatically bring Paris to mind; but also because Paris is celebrating her 2000th birthday and anyone who is still going at the ripe old age of 2000 should have her birthday celebrated.

The luncheon will be French and even the decorations will be in keeping. The T.W.A. Airlines is arranging the entertainment. Mrs. Mary Calegari, President of the Mothers' Club, and Mrs. Ennis are the general chairman for this affair which promises to be one of the most delightful affairs this year.

Two smart gals! Both cook on automatic gas ranges!

Bought my range a while ago. Pampered it because I know... Proper care (Rule Number One) Makes it last for years to come.

Moral here is pretty clear Any model... any year Give your gas range proper care... It will wear and wear and wear.

Range I used was pretty bad. Went to see what Dealer had. Found a dandy... lucky day! Now I cook the modern way.

It's smart to cook with an automatic gas range. Smart because gas is quick, clean, thrifty and steady. It makes cooking pleasant, easy, successful. If you have a modern gas range take good care of it. If you do not have one, investigate the possibility of buying one. See your dealer soon!

V.F.W. Members Visit Hospital

Three members of Auxiliary No. 9921 of the VFW—Anita Woods, Hilda Stettler and Hazel Eagleton—visited the women's ward of the Palo Alto Veterans' Hospital March 14. There were refreshments, music, and games.

An aloha cocktail party was given at the home of Mary Ann Read March 16 for President Gladys Holt.

The auxiliary elected new officers at its regular business meeting at the community center March 27. Elected were Hazel Eagleton, president; Hilda Stettler, senior vice president; Ruth Cousins, junior vice president; and Rose Fisher, secretary.

New Wage Deduction Passed By Assembly

APRIL 5. (CNS)—The assembly today passed and sent to the senate a bill which would prohibit deduction of a full half hour's time from the wages of any worker who was a fraction of an hour late for work, but would only allow the deduction of pay for the actual period he was late.

Number of Polio Cases Declines In California

APRIL 5. (CNS)—Infantile paralysis is on the wane in California and only six new cases were reported in the state during the week ending March 24, a decline from a similar week in 1950, the State Department of Health reported this week.

Two cases were reported in Sacramento county and one each in Contra Costa, San Mateo, Tulare, and San Diego counties.

The department reported 2,265 cases of measles during the week and 1,098 cases of chickenpox, a decrease for the latter disease.

Home Gardening Stepped Up

APRIL 5. (CNS)—The United States Department of Agriculture has asked the State Department of Agriculture and Farm Extension Services to step up production of food this year in California through home gardening and food preservation activities in the home.

Citing the need for increased food production because of a hungry world and the demands of the military services and defense program, Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan is asking a similar program to that of World War II which produced gardens in backyards and on vacant lots.

Garden editors, educators, garden club leaders and extension experts are asked to launch programs of instruction for home canners and gardeners.

ARM SIGNALS

Are you one of those motorists who does away with hand signaling in rainy weather just because opening the car window wets your arm a little? If so, you may be endangering your life. Arm signals are necessary to traffic safety. Don't let a little rain keep you from signaling urges the California State Automobile Association.

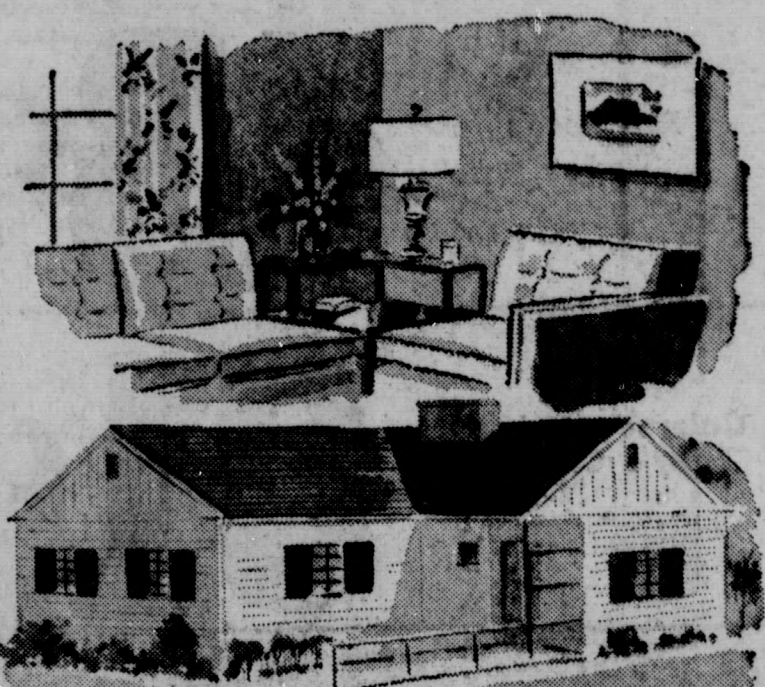

has two objectives, (1) to produce more food at home so more may be spared for those less fortunate abroad, and (2) provide more food to assure diet and health improvement at home.

Brannan has informed state authorities that in these days of high prices home gardening will strike a blow at inflation by easing a shortage of food. This will in turn lighten the family budget, leaving money to buy other necessities which would be otherwise unavailable to those in the low income brackets.

Cars Without New Plates To Be Stopped By Police

APRIL 5. (CNS)—All motor vehicles without 1951 registration plates will be stopped and drivers cited unless they have valid evidence of the new registration in their possession, according to Commissioner Clifford E. Peterson of the California Highway Patrol.

Peterson said that the renewal applications for 1951 registrations submitted between January 1 and February 5 have been processed. The order to all district and squad commanders of the patrol to stop vehicles without the new plates applies also to trailers and semi-trailers.

Dangerous Misunderstanding

Rapid Decline In Blood Donors Noted Throughout Daly City Area

Attributing the rapid decline in blood donors for the armed forces to a "dangerous misunderstanding," rather than a lack of patriotism on the part of Daly City residents, the Red Cross here today issued a new appeal for blood to be flown to war wounded military men in Korea and Japan.

The misunderstanding arose some ten days ago, according to Mrs. Henry Bostwick, Jr., Red Cross Blood Donor Chairman, and has caused serious concern to military leaders, officials of the San Mateo County Blood Bank, and the Red Cross.

This misunderstanding is attributed to published wire stories to the effect that a derivative of Okra was taking the place of blood for transfusion purposes.

Immediately on the appearance of the article, its reverse effect was not only felt here, but throughout many sections of the nation where blood centers have been established.

Denial

Its harmful impact was so great that the National Research Council, Division of Medical Sciences, investigated and now makes emphatic denial that manufactured substitutes can take the place of human blood in treating the injured.

Dr. M. C. Winternitz, Chairman of the NRC Division of Medical Sciences, from his office in Washington, D.C., has sent out nationwide refutation of the claim regarding Okra and any other type of so-called manufactured replacement for whole blood.

He said that blood donors are needed as urgently as ever. While the NRC is actively studying and experimenting with plasma substitution, its leaders want the public to get the true picture of the need for whole blood, rather than for plasma. It emphasizes that there can be no substitute for whole blood.

His report stresses that plasma is the second line of defense, whole blood the first, and that there is no real substitute for whole blood and none is in sight.

No Substitute

As to substitutes for plasma, the work of research goes on, but much important information remains to be learned, his report closes.

Mrs. Bostwick appeals anew today to keep the mercy planes flying nightly out of San Francisco with a load of whole blood for the war wounded Americans. Only by increased number of donors here and in other Bay Area counties can the plane proceed nightly with the much needed full load, she added.

Those wanting to answer the Red Cross-Blood Bank "give a pint, save a life" appeal, are asked to immediately telephone either the two Red Cross Chapters—DI, 3-4561 or EMerson 6-3851—for an appointment at the San Mateo County Blood Bank.

"The need is great," urges Mrs. Bostwick, "do it now."

Civil Defense Program Seeks Registered Nurses

The San Francisco County Nurses' Association has launched a program to recruit all registered nurses, both active and inactive, in the Civil Defense program, it as, announced this week by Admiral A. G. Cook, Director of the San Francisco Disaster Council and Corps.

Directors of nursing in all San Francisco hospitals have been sent questionnaires and loyalty oath forms and are working within the hospitals to recruit nurses for the vital work which would follow a disaster.

Questionnaires will be sent to all active and inactive nurses in the city, whether or not they are members of the association, according to Mrs. Edith Liebscher, executive secretary.

Between now and the receipt of questionnaires, nurses wishing to enroll in the Civil Defense nursing program may do so at association headquarters, 1155 Pine Street.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Myra G. Faraday, association president, announced the appointment of a committee to instruct nurses in the aspects of nursing in atomic warfare. The members are: Mrs. Helen Chesterman chairman, Miss Janice Vordale, Miss Laurel Raymond, Miss Hana Sakamoto and Miss Ruth Lotspeich.

Judges' Salary Increases Urged

MARCH 29. (CNS)—A bill designed to raise the salaries of San Mateo county superior court judges was in the Senate Finance Committee today, after a debate over the merits of all judges' salary raises on the floor of the senate.

The measure, S.B.-710, by Senator Harry Parkman, San Mateo County, received a do pass recommendation from the Senate Committee on Local Government, and was on the floor of the senate for action.

It was the first judges salary bill raise of the session in the state senate, and sought to increase from $12,000 annually to $15,000 annually.

Parkman said it had the approval of the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors and the grand jury. Senator Ben Hulse, however, moved it to finance under rules of the senate which provide no bills with appropriations may be passed before the budget bill, which has not as yet been considered.

Governor Calls For Contributions To Cancer Crusade

Governor Earl Warren today asked Californians to contribute generously to the American Cancer Society's annual April Crusade as a means of saving the lives of thousands of Californians annually.

In a proclamation declaring

April to be Cancer Control Month in California, Governor Warren declared that nearly "15,000 Californians died of cancer last year and that medical experts tell us that approximately 5,000 of them could be alive today if the disease had been detected in time."

The remainder of the proclamation declares:

"This is a terrible toll of unnecessary death in a state and a nation that have made such great progress in recent years in counteracting the ravages of disease. It means that greater attention on the part of all of us to the symptoms of cancer will pay dividends in reducing the toll of this disease which is now responsible for one of every seven deaths.

"The American Cancer Society, through funds contributed by the public conducts a double-barreled attack on this dread killer—an extensive research program and also a widespread educational program to acquaint the public with the need of recognizing the danger signals of cancer. In the interest of finding a cancer preventive or cure, the Society spent $17,000,000 of its budget for research purposes. Part of this was allocated to universities in our own state for cancer projects.

"Because of the importance of insuring the continuation of research and experimentation and bringing about greater public awareness of the symptoms of cancer and the importance of early treatment, I, Earl Warren, Governor of California, do hereby proclaim the month of April, 1951, as CANCER CONTROL MONTH in California. I urge the people of California to contribute generously during this month for the support

Veteran Amputees To Be Free From Auto Licenses

APRIL 5. (CNS)—The assembly this week passed and sent to the senate an amended bill which would exempt veterans who have lost the use of both legs as a result of injury or disease while serving in the Armed Forces, from payment of the motor vehicle license fee on any one passenger automobile.

Exemption of the motor vehicle license fee has been limited to paraplegic veterans who received special automobiles from the United States Government under an act of congress.

IMPERSONATING A MOVIE STAR

by Ridgely Cummings

My cup runneth over one day last week as the scriptural writers might have said. Only they used a different tense that made it come out "runneth over." Which looks better but means the same thing.

Namely, that I had a big day. For on that momentous day I was mistaken for a movie star.

Although this event transpired a week ago, I remember it well. The circumstances are engraved on my so-called memory.

There was smog downtown but the sun was shining out in Hollywood and it was a beautiful morning.

I was on my way out to an institution of high finance called the Screen Writers Guild, where incidentally I learned when I got there that it will cost me only 10 to join. That seemed like a bargain. But I also learned that I can't join until I become a screen writer. And when I become a thousand dollar a week man then the guild wants one per cent of my earnings in addition to the initiation fee.

Quite Enough

That's enough to discourage the average writer. Think of having to pay ten dollars a week on every thousand you earn. Suppose you become a five thousand a week man. Then you have to pay the union fifty dollars a week.

It's enough to make on an anarchist. No wonder the industry's full of reds. But never mind. I'll conform if necessary. Bring on the five thousand.

Well, en route to the guild offices, which are between Beverly Hills and Hollywood, it was necessary for me to transfer to another bus. The transfer point is Schwab's pharmacy, where aspiring players wait in vain for a glimpse of their agents.

As I alighted from the bus I noticed a girl giving me the inquisitive eye. She was attractive so I looked right back. She hesitated a moment and then said:

Professional

"Pardon me. Is this where I catch the bus to the Sunset Strip?"

"That's right. Just get on the same one I take."

"It's a beautiful day, isn't it?"

"Sure is."

"You're a professional, aren't you?"

I was a little puzzled but sensed that something pleasant was coming. I thought maybe she had mistaken me for a professional football player or maybe a professor at UCLA.

"Professional what?"

"Professional actor, of course."

My chest expansion increased

Army Calls Local Reserve Officers

More than 100 field grade Army Reserve and National Guard officers—lieutenant colonels and majors—will be called to active military service in April in Northern California, it was announced by the California Military District at the Presidio of San Francisco.

The program calls for ordering into active military service voluntarily and involuntarily field grade officers in all of the combat branches and certain service branches. However, local headquarters indicate that volunteers are preferred.

Field grade personnel who are interested in returning to active service have been requested to submit applications to the California Military District Headquarters at the Presidio of San Francisco.

The call-up is scheduled in three phases—April 2, April 9 and April 24. Tours of service under the program will be 21 months. Branches from which the field grade officers are to be drawn are infantry, armor, artillery, signal, by several inches, though why I don't know for most of the male actors I've met are awful hams. "I just need a haircut."

Has The Air

"No, I'm sure I've seen you on the screen. You have that air." "Must have been Gary Cooper. But, as a matter of fact," I said (whenever somebody says "as a matter of fact I thought the same thing about you the minute I got off the bus."

A smile broke over the girl's face. Her little chin went up in the air.

"Didn't you notice me staring at you?" I added.

It had been the other way around but she quickly forgot that and her eyes shone as she told me about the drama school she was attending and what the instructor said and her hopes for the future until our bus came.

Always the gentleman, I let her on first. She promptly sat down next to an old geezer wearing a camel's hair coat, so that was the end of that incident. But I noticed she was still smiling, rather happily and secretively, when she got off the bus.

Twin Cleaners
Filterstill Means
Cleaner Clothes
Taking one more step to guarantee you better, cleaner clothes,
Twin Cleaners, 6772 Mission
Street, installed the first Martin
Filterstill in California this week.
The still, not to be confused with the whiskey trade, is a narrow, rather tall metal box with the usual number of pipes, gauges and handles. Its appearance may be of little interest to the layman, but its operation should interest anyone who looks for the best cleaning job.

Principal job of the Filterstill is to guarantee a clean, fresh solvent for your clothes. In many cleaning plants the same solvent is used over and over again on everything from papa's pants to junior's play suit. Not so with the Filterstill. Through that narrow box, through those pipes, passes the cleanest solvent in the world.

The Filterstill filters the solvent
by pumping the dirty solvent (which in other plants is never filtered) under low pressure against specially Filterstill covers. These covers retain the insoluble dirt particles, permitting the clean solvent to pass thru the Filterstill back to the washer.
Remember, the only Filterstill in California is at your own Twin Cleaners, 6772 Mission Street. Only Twin Cleaners can give you those extra clean clothes; first, thru Mar-tinizing them, and second by use of the Filterstill.

Mateo county as a defense measure.
The resolution points out that the harbor can be made safe through such a breakwater which would also provide additional harbor facilities for national defense and would provide a port for fish-

Assembly Allows Schools To Buy Choir Uniforms

APRIL 5. (CNS)—The assembly this week passed and sent to the senate a bill which will permit school districts to purchase uniforms and other regalia for school choirs. The present law restricts such action by school boards to the equipping of school bands and orchestras.

HARRY, who is the grand master supreme in the paint business, isn't one to boast, but he guarantees he can answer any of your paint problems. The other day a lady asked Harry to whip up a color suitable to paint her husband's room. Applying a bit of psychology (he is a graduate, with a B.S. degree from the school of hard knocks), Harry determined the lady's attitude toward the bread winner. He also discovered the old man was a retired sedan chair manufacturer. Scratching his head, Harry thought over the problem. He came up with the answer 100 scratches later. "Madame," he said, paint his room with achromatic (consult your dictionary) shades. As a sedan chair manufacturer (they stopped making these chairs 200 years ago) he's been in the red so long, he'll enjoy seeing black. Also, as you are convinced he's a brilliant man, a little gray in the room will offset the brilliance of his balding scalp."

Research Probes Cancer Problem

Cancer now is being assaulted by all the weapons of science. Biologists, chemists and physicists lead the attack.

The big push on cancer began just six years ago. Since that time the American Cancer Society has allocated approximately $17,000,000 to research.

Early cancer grants were concentrated on assisting investigators to get equipment and to acquire the techniques for handling radioactive isotopes. Today, stress is on hormones. Tomorrow, the news may tell of new applications of radiation or new knowledge of cell growth revealed by the electron microscope or the color-transferring microscope.

The search is on. Every clue will be followed. Meanwhile, more trained minds are spending more time searching for the answer to the riddle of cancer than ever before—but they need your support through contributions to the 1951 Cancer Crusade of the American Cancer Society.

Your dollars help guard your family. Strike back! Give to conquer cancer.

Milk Production Declines In State

APRIL 5. (CNS)—Market milk production in California declined during the last months of 1950 and the Bureau of Milk Control, State Department of Agriculture, said the drop may be due to many farmers selling their herds for beef and turning to other types of farming practices offering greater incomes.

Production in the San Mateo county area for the month of December, according to a survey conducted by the bureau last month, showed production of 53,000 pounds of market milk and 3,000 pounds of manufacturing milk during the month.

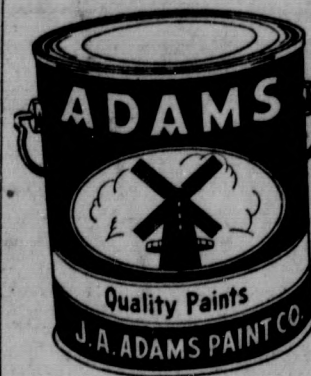

However, many in close touch with California's dairy situation blame the present system of establishing minimum prices for the drop in production.

Calaveras County once contained all of Alpine and Mono, most of Amador and part of Inyo Counties.
